A FATAL STABBING

C. W. SMITH KILLS WILLIAM C. CARTMELL.

VICTIM LIVES 20 MINUTES

CARTMELL FOUND DRINKING WITH MRS. SMITH.

ASSAILANT GIVES HIMSELF UP

Crime Committed About 4:30 Yesterday Afternoon, at 620 S. Sierra Madre Street—Both Were Railroad Employes, and Former Friends.

William C. Cartmell, a switchman for the Midland railway, was fatally stabbed at 4:30 yesterday afternoon, by Charles W. Smith, a brakeman employed on the Short Line, at the home of the latter, 620 South Sierra Madre street, this city.

Cartmell succeeded in throwing Smith from the front door of the house after he received a death wounds, and returned to the kitchen, where he fell to the floor, and expired in the presence of Mrs. Smith, who sought to stanch the flow of blood from wounds in the shoulder and under the heart.

After committing the deed, Smith went to the house of the next door neighbor, Mrs. Bessie Hanson, where he washed his hands, and quietly remarked:

"I believe I have killed Cartmell, and am glad of it. I want somebody to telephone for the police."

The police station was at once notified and Mounted Officer Adkins quickly arrived and took Smith into custody. While in Mrs. Hanson's house, and afterward on the street, where he conversed with acquaintances while waiting for the arrival of the police, Smith carried the knife with which the deed had been committed. Shortly before the officer arrived he threw it away, and later it could not be found.

Lived Twenty Minutes.

Cartmell lived about 20 minutes after the stabbing, but was so exhausted and choked by the flow of blood that he did not make any statement, according to the story told by Mrs. Smith, who was the only person present. When Officer Adkins arrived he was just breathing his last. Smith was sent directly to the station in the patrol wagon, and Officer Adkins remained with Mrs. Smith, whom he later took to police headquarters. Coroner David F. Law and Dr. M. H. Smith were immediately notified, but when they arrived the man was beyond recovery.

The murdered man was more than six feet in height, and a fine specimen of physical manhood. He was a widower, his wife dying about ten year ago. Mrs. Smith stated that he was expecting to go to work as a switchman for the Midland in Colorado City today.

He had been an intimate acquaintance of the Smiths for some years, and, according to Mrs. Smith's story, spent several weeks in the hospital at Cripple Creek last winter when both he and Smith were sick. Later the two men came to this city, and Cartmell boarded with the Smiths for several months. As Mrs. Smith expressed it, he was regarded "as one of the family."

Smith Second Husband.

Mrs. Smith, whose maiden name was Nettie Matthews, is 39 years of age, and has been twice married. Her first husband was L. S. Moore, at present the owner of a saloon in Denver. The couple lived at Ft. Morgan for several years, and had two children—a daughter, Mrs. G. R. Lechner, 94 South Corona street, Denver, and a son, Seigle Moore, living at 3629 Humboldt street, Denver.

About nine years ago Mrs. Smith was divorced from Moore, and married Smith in this city in 1898. Since that time they have lived for the most part in Colorado Springs, their last residence having been on Cimarron street. They moved from there to their present address about two months ago. Mrs. Smith's home before her first marriage was in Illinois, but since the age of 23 she has lived in Colorado. She has no children by her present husband.

So far as can be learned from Mrs. Smith's statement, given at the hour, the facts of the murder are as follows:

Cartmell came to the Smith home at 11 o'clock yesterday forenoon while the husband was absent on his regular run. He remained during the afternoon. Smith came home about 2 o'clock, and among them they drank nearly a quart bottle of gin. The bottle was afterward found by the coroner almost empty.

The two men were in the kitchen at the rear of the house when the row started. During the struggle they apparently made their way through a connecting hallway and into the front room leading to the street. Two boys stated that they saw Smith being kicked from the front door, but could not see the face of the man who did it. Smith came through the front gate carrying a knife, and proceeded to Mrs. Hanson's house, where he washed his hands. Mrs. Hanson stated that this was at 4:35 o'clock.

Could Not Find Knife.

While on the street, waiting for the arrival of the police, Smith told Grant Crosby, a young man, of the stabbing, and gave as his reason that Cartmell had been too intimate with his wife. He claimed that he was no match for Cartmell, physically, as the latter was athletic, much taller and heavier than himself.

BAD MIX-UP IN DIVORCES

Relationship Problem Difficult to Solve.

DENVER, Oct. 9.—Mrs. N. M. Parsons-Herbertson secured a divorce this morning.

As soon as the verdict was rendered she hurried to another division of the court where a suit was pending against a former husband.

On the stand she charged that her husband neglected her and spent all his money on the mother of his first wife.

The woman was the second wife of Herbertson. She divorced her second husband this morning. Her first husband is now living with his third wife, the two previous ones having secured divorces and her second husband divorced this morning in is making preparations for a new marriage. It is charged that the woman who secured the divorce this morning will marry the brother of her second husband.

What relations are all these divorced wives and husbands to two minor children in the county court because no one will support them?

BIDDING NOT LIMITED

AMERICANS MUST COMPETE WITH FOREIGNERS.

Terms of Proposals to Complete Panama Canal.—No Bar to Corporations.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Invitations for proposals to complete the Panama canal were issued today by the canal commission, and the form of contract under which the work is to be done was made public by Chairman Shonts, who also gave out a written letter to the secretary of war giving the commission's reasons for contracting the work.

The contract provides that the successful bidder must undertake the entire work of construction. No bar will be offered to corporations associating in the undertaking, but they must be legally organized into a single body with which the government can deal. Bidders will not be considered who do not have available capital of $5,000,000. A certified check for $200,000 is required with each proposal, and a bond of $3,000,000 will be required from the successful bidder.

The bidding is not limited to American bidders. All proposals are to be in before noon of March 12, when they will be opened. Contracts are to be expressed in terms of percentage upon the estimated cost of construction, which is to be [illegible] by a board of five engineers, three appointed by the government and two by the contractor.

The commission will [illegible] a reasonable time for the completion of the canal and will agree upon a system of [illegible] penalties to be paid to or by the contractor according as the work is completed. All the government plant for actual construction work is to be placed at the disposal of the contractor and is to be maintained by the government.

The contract specifies that the commission is to retain control of all engineering work in connection with the construction of the canal, also municipal engineering, the police, sanitary, hospital and commissary departments, mess houses, construction and maintenance of buildings, operation of the Panama railway, an auditing department, to which contractors' accounts are to be open, and a department of materials and supplies.

Sixty days after the signing of the contract actual work is to begin and the contractor is to take over all employes on the isthmus which the commission does not wish to retain, no American employes to work more than eight hours.

Chairman Shonts, in his letter to Secretary Taft, says:

"This plan is being employed increasingly by the oldest, largest and most successful corporations in the country. The government will get the benefit of the combined efforts of the best and most experienced contractors in the world, each in charge of a department in which he is a specialist and co-operating with other specialists.

"The government will secure the co-operation of these powerful interests in keeping mechanics of all classes.

"The plan offers every incentive for speedy and economical construction by penalizing extra time and cost and rewarding better than contract performance as to either.

"By retaining control of the work and exercising strict supervision through its engineering force, the government will protect itself against cheap and faulty construction."

"The contract will be more flexible. The time and cost of completing the canal as estimated will, in all probability, be reduced by the application of new principles which will be discovered as the work progresses. Finally, a termination of the contract, should it become necessary, would be less disastrous to the contractor, while an effective resumption of the work would be made easier to the government owing to its close relations thereto."

LIVES UP TO EXPECTATIONS

Cruiser California Proves to Be Speedy Vessel.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., Oct. 9.—After a delay of three days, on account of the heavy fog that has hung over Santa Barbara channel since the arrival of the California, the new cruiser was enabled to undergo standardization trials over the measured military course this morning. The California has lived up to the highest expectations of the builders and of the naval board, and has proved to be one of the speediest of Uncle Sam's armored cruisers.

The average of the five high-speed runs was 22.62 knots, and the highest speed attained on a single run was 23.75 knots.

ARGENTA TROUBLE CONTINUES

Another Murder Shot.—Alleged Murderer Held Under Bond of $3,000.

ARGENTA, Ark., Oct. 9.—Alexander Champion, a negro bartender, and a member of a number of negro fraternities, was shot to death at the foot of the fine bridge between Little Rock and Argenta, today, at 11 o'clock. Luther Lindsay, son of John B. Lindsay, who was killed by negroes alleged to be Garrett and C. C. Collum and Lewis Styles, Saturday night, is now held under $3,000 bond charged with having killed Champion.

Champion is alleged to have made remarks concerning the Lindsays. He was arrested early this morning on a charge of carrying a pistol, and his pockets were found to be full of cartridges. He was later released and was endeavoring to raise enough money to pay a $50 fine when killed. This is the first trouble here since the lynching of H. C. Blackman, a negro, by a mob, Sunday night. Last night and today, with the exception of the killing of Champion, everything was quiet and the police expect no further trouble. Special policemen and extra deputies are on patrol duty in the railroad yards, in the negro settlements and throughout the downtown districts tonight.

WILL REMAIN INDEPENDENT

Wisconsin Central Railway Will Not Consolidate With Any Other Roads.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 9.—The Wisconsin Central Railway company was formally transferred into the control of new interests at today's annual meeting of the stockholders, which was held at the general offices of the corporation in this city. The new board of directors is headed by G. M. Cumming of New York.

Wm. A. Bradford, Jr., of Cincinnati, is slated to succeed H. F. Whitcomb of Milwaukee as president of the road; Geo. H. Cumming of New York, as chairman of the board of directors in place of Wm. L. Bull.

Mr. Bradford made the following statement:

"There is no intention whatever of consolidation or combination between the Wisconsin Central and any other roads, and all reports to the effect that the property is to be absorbed, consolidated with, or in any manner placed in a position by which it loses its identity and individuality as a separate and [illegible] are without [illegible]"

INDIANS WON'T GO HOME

Utes Will Go on to the Big Horn Mountains.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9. A telegram to the commissioner of Indian affairs from Indian Inspector McLaughlin, dated at Newcastle, Wyo., today, indicated that the band of wandering Ute Indians who have been absent from their reservation in Utah for several months past, is beginning to disintegrate, but that most of them are stubbornly refusing to return to their homes.

"The leader positively refuses to return," said Mr. McLaughlin in a telegram, "but I succeeded in getting 45 to accompany me. I promised to send them ponies by rail to Rock Springs, Wyo., from which point they will be sent home in six days. They should reach here on the evening of the tenth and will need rations on arrival.

"About 100 of the more aggressive will continue northwest to the Big Horn mountains, where they contemplate locating. But they can not subsist there. No trouble need be apprehended from them, if not interfered with. They are sullen and will doubtless resist if forced to return in present mood, but approaching cold weather and lack of subsistence will soon bring them to their senses."

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 9.—The Union state Republican convention was held here tonight. J. Edward Addicks presided. The ticket nominated by the convention of September 5 was indorsed.

DEATH TO JEWS AND FOES

Words of President Dubrovin of Union of Russian People Cause Riot.

ODESSA, Oct. 9.—President Dubrovin, of the Union of Russian People, made a remarkable address here today. He spoke to a band of 300 armed members of the union who had carried him on their shoulders to the railroad station on his departure for Kiev. He said:

"In the name of our beloved emperor, I bless you. The holy Russian cause is the extermination of rebels. Clear the Russian soil of them, you know who they are. Clear the Russian soil of them. The Russian people want neither constitutions nor parliaments but orthodoxy and autocracy. Go ahead brothers; death to the rebels and Jews."

After his train had left the band of 300 rushed down the principal street shouting "death to the rebels; death to the Jews."

All shops were at once closed and the Jewish population was in a condition of panic and terror throughout the night. Martial law by the prefect, however, prevented further disturbance.

COLLISION ON THE HIGH LINE

Cars Narrowly Escaped, but No One Seriously Injured in Derailment.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Oct. 9.—A collision of two high line cars occurred at Midway this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. No one was seriously injured, although all the passengers were badly shaken up.

It will require an official investigation to ascertain how Motorman J. Shoemaker, coming toward Cripple Creek, passed the switch and jammed into the other car. It was only through the presence of mind of Motorman H. A. Hunlong that more serious damage was averted. Seeing that the other motorman had failed to take siding, he backed his car up three lengths, which relieved the jar. Both motormen were slightly injured, and the cars were practically demolished, although neither left the rails.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—Speaker Joseph G. Cannon was the guest of honor at the Chicago day banquet given by the Marquette club tonight at the Auditorium. He responded to the toast "Illinois." The speaker was toasted as the leading citizen of Illinois, and a reference to his possible candidacy for the presidency was greeted with unanimous applause. Fully 700 members of the club and invited guests were present, and many politicians from this state and other portions of the middle west were in the banquet hall. Congressman Boutelle of Illinois responded to the toast "Chicago." Frank C. Goudy of Denver on "The New West," and Congressman James H. Watson of Indiana on "1908."

and then spoke of "abuses that have crept in while we have been so busy in the rapid development of our own resources." He was confident that the people would remedy these evils, the most serious of which was railroad discrimination. Mr. Cannon said:

"The achievements of our independence, the formation of the constitution, the abolition of servile labor, the preservation of the Union, the keeping of the public faith, have all involved questions more difficult of solution than any we face today. With the ability to meet these, our fathers disposed of the perplexities which rose up to trouble them from time to time; and we of this generation, under the policing of the Republican party, by legislation of a Republican congress, through the decisions of the courts, and for the last five years under the leadership of Theodore Roosevelt, have succeeded in disposing of many problems calculated to disturb all well wishers of our government, but in all eras of important accomplishments, the dreamer, the demagogue, the self-seeker, have tried in the past, as they are trying today, to lead the impatient, the ignorant and the selfish, as well as those who are patriotic but mistaken, away from the basic principles of sound, effective government that into the realms of the theoretical reformer, mysticism and doubt.

Trying to Path of Duty.

"At this time there are many, some in New York, some in Nebraska, some in Massachusetts, who, while protesting their love for the people, are endeavoring to lead them into paths that would lead but to disorder, anarchy and ruin. What a spectacle is presented to the world by the unassuming, modest Hearst, and the spotless, angelic Murphy, both professing to wear the white clothing of reform and wildly proclaiming their devotion to the best interests of the people, manipulating, each for his own ends, the representatives of the New York Democracy and asking for the adherence of that party in the great Empire state of New York, as well as in Massachusetts, and the approval of the leaders of the minority party generally throughout the United States.

Time to Act Is Now.

"It is up to our party, adhering to the policies which have always been its guide, to rectify the errors that may have crept into industrial and political life. We are curing the defects and we must continue to perform that duty. We, as the majority organization, have not only to take care of [illegible] but we have to take care of [illegible] and misled. This is the time to act is now. No man can successfully attack the record of the Republican congress and the administration of Theodore Roosevelt."

NEW PROVISIONAL GOVERNOR REACHES CUBA.

TAFT PROCLAIMS AMNESTY

PROCLAMATION IS OF THE MOST SWEEPING CHARACTER.

OUTLINES DUTIES OF MARINES

To Take No Active Part in Suppressing Disorder, Except in Cases of Extreme Emergency if Absence Will Create Panic of Timidity.

HAVANA, Oct. 9.—Charles E. Magoon, the newly appointed provisional governor of Cuba, arrived here this afternoon. Coincident with his coming Governor Taft gave out a general decree proclaiming amnesty not only to the rebels but to all persons charged with political offenses or crimes in any way connected with the revolution. He also issued orders covering the attitude of the American marines and soldiers toward the people of Cuba.

The appearance of yellow fever at Cienfuegos today caused the immediate issuance of an order by Colonel Barnett directing that the American marines be removed from that city.

The steamer Mascotte with Mr. Magoon, General J. Franklin Bell, Mrs. Taft and Mrs. Bacon entered Havana harbor at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Taft Is Dignified.

William H. Taft, as provisional governor of Cuba and secretary of war of the United States, tonight issued an order to General Funston outlining the duties of the American forces in Cuba.

The officers of marines stationed in various localities are advised that they are not expected to take part in an active way in the suppression of disorder unless extreme emergency exists in which it is absolutely necessary for them to protect life and property. The duties of the marines are generally limited to rendering their good offices between the conflicting elements and the prevention of that disorder of the mob which, in the case of a fight between the political parties is inevitable during the present crisis. The order says it is expected that the presence of the marines in the community will create such a sense of security that the rural guards and the police will be able to suppress any disorder which manifests itself.

The order concludes as follows:

"The president of the United States deems it of the utmost importance that the American forces do not engage in conflict with Cubans, so that disorders by Cubans be suppressed by Cubans. It is also expected that the officers and men both of the army and the marine corps will exert every effort to show all courtesy possible to Cubans of all parties and avoid in any [illegible] the [illegible] difficulties."

Assembly to Embark.

The order [illegible] that the marines will remain in the island only the present as an adjunct to the infantry.

Governor Taft said today that practically all the American warships now in Cuban waters soon would be withdrawn.

An amnesty proclamation of the most sweeping character possible, pardoning every serious crime which has been an outgrowth of the recent revolution, will be issued by Governor Taft tomorrow. Complete pardon is granted to all persons involved in the killing of Congressman Villuendas at Cienfuegos in September, 1908, as well as to everybody implicated in the killing of several rural guards at Guanabacoa last February.

The proclamation serves notice that armed [illegible] defying the law will tomorrow will be proceeded against and denied the benefits of amnesty.

ALTROCK OPPOSES BROWN

Former Old Soakers Ready to Take Even Money After the Victory. All Chicago Bubbling Over With Baseball Enthusiasm.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—The Chicago team of the American league won from the National league pennant winners today by a score of 2 to 1 in the first game of the world's championship.

The game furnished a fine example of modern baseball, wherein the fine points of the game are more in evidence than the slugging of other days, but it was an error of puerile character which gave the American league team its winning margin. And that error also is the reason that tonight's supporters of the winning team, erstwhile demanding odds in betting, are willing to take even money on the series.

At 8 o'clock this morning the vanguard of enthusiasts who had not secured reserved seats lined up in front of the box office of the National league park. By noon, when the gates were opened, several thousand men were waiting, and within an hour and a half most of the persons who expected to see the exhibition were in their seats. Ticket speculators, warned by the early arrest of eight of their number, soon disappeared. The streets were lined with hawkers selling flags, horns, megaphones, photographs of the players and souvenirs without end.

Snow fell several times during the afternoon and was making a good showing when play was begun at 2:30 o'clock.

The regular grandstand, the boxes in front of it and the other 50 cent bleachers and the circus seats surrounding the outfield were filled with a warmly bundled-up crowd, whose nerves were so much on edge that they were at the point where cheering acts as a safety valve. The crowd made a circle clear around the field. One hundred policemen were on hand to preserve order and for the first time in years they succeeded, aided partly by wire cables strung around the field and partly by the fact that only 12,693 persons were present. It had been expected that over 20,000 enthusiasts would be there to cheer their favorites, but the coldness of the weather, the possibility of rain and fear that seats could not be obtained kept thousands away.

It was the lot of Right Fielder Hahn of the American league, to walk before 12,000 pairs of eyes as the first man at bat. He ingloriously missed three good ones, thus becoming the first of seven men who were to perform likewise before Pitcher Brown. For four innings it was machine made baseball of a perfect type. Only one man, Schulte of the Nationals, reached first base. Schulte stole second and Captain Chance, with grim determination written in the lines of his face, exchanged bats and faced Pitcher Altrock. Chance swung viciously, but his hot grounder was nipped by Altrock with one hand and that chance to score was gone.

In the first half of the fifth, however, Rohe electrified the crowd by sending a stinging hit down the third base line and under the temporary benches, reaching third base on the hit. Donahue struck out attempting to bunt, but Dougherty was more fortunate. He laid down an easy one half way between the pitcher and catcher. Brown scooped up the ball in beautiful fashion and tossed it to Kling. Rohe was tearing wildly for the plate, and he got there, for Kling's frost-bitten fingers refused to close around the ball.

In their half the Nationals went out one, two, three. The next inning the Americans scored again. Altrock walked, Hahn sacrificed, Jones singled to center, but Hoffman's perfect throw caught Altrock at the plate by two yards, Jones reaching second on the play. He reached third, when Kling fumbled the ball for a moment, and crossed the plate with the second run of the game, when Isbell singled to left.

The Nationals also scored in this inning. Kling was given a pass and went to second on Brown's single. Both advanced a base on Hoffman's sacrifice and Kling scored a moment later on a wild pitch. Sheckard, however, was out on a fly ball and Schulte perished, Rohe to Donohue, the latter falling flat on his back, but holding the throw in his gloved hands as he fell. Thereafter neither pitcher was in a critical position, and after one hour and forty-five minutes' play, Jones caught Steinfeldt's final effort and the crowd flowed into the field. The pent-up enthusiasm of the American league adherents broke out in wild cheering and tooting of horns, while the supporters of the defeated team for the most part filed solemnly out of the grounds.

One crowd captured Rohe and carried him out on their shoulders, while another contingent paid like homage to Altrock.

Elevated and surface cars were crowded with thousands who yelled themselves hoarse and overflowed into the down-town cafes and hotels to continue the celebration. The hotels report a large number of out-of-town delegations here for the game. They come from every section of the country, and even foreigners passing through, catching the infection of this ball craze, deserted the usual sight-seeing excursions and journeyed to the west side park.

Tomorrow's game will be played on the American league grounds. Score:

WILL FORM NO ALLIANCE

Grand Trunk Pacific Will Work Independently to Secure Transcontinental Route.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—"The Grand Trunk railroad will not form an alliance with any other interest, but will work independently to secure a transcontinental route which will shorten the distance between New York and Yokohama by 1,500 miles as against the San Francisco route, and 500 miles as against the Canadian Pacific route."

This statement was made here today by C. M. Hayes, president of the Grand Trunk Pacific and vice president and general manager of the Grand Trunk lines. Mr. Hayes, together with Vice [illegible] Morse and other officers, has just completed a wagon and horseback trip over the route of the new road from Winnipeg to Edmonton. He said the roadbed between these two points had already been graded. West of Edmonton the exact route of the new line has not yet been decided upon, but twelve surveys are working in the mountains to secure the most advantageous pass.

STILL AFTER THE FACTS

WILL UNCOVER ALL OF CORE ON RESERVOIR NO. 4

Supt. Cranston Looking for Men to Push Work, Startling Discrepancies Already Found.

For the purpose of pushing the investigation of the construction of the concrete core of dam No. 4 of the city water system, that correct statistics may be secured on the dimensions of the core, fraudulent figures on which former City Engineer E. W. Case admits having filed during his incumbency, Richard Cranston, in charge of the work of excavating, is in [illegible] investigation will be pushed with all speed, and the true dimensions of the entire length of the core secured.

Several [illegible] trenches have been dug since the work was begun under the supervision of City Engineer Ashworth and Prof. L. G. Carpenter, and the [illegible] results have been revealed. In each case the investigation shows that the concrete core of the dam is materially less in depth than recorded in the specifications filed by Case.

In general the depth of the concrete does not run much over one-half of that shown by Case's records. In no test yet made has the true depth tallied with the figures of Case, and in every instance the difference is extreme.

This work will be prosecuted until practically all the concrete core has been uncovered. When this is completed efforts will be made to ascertain the condition of the puddling ditch beneath the center of the dam, which has not yet been investigated.

When asked whether the same conditions existed in dam No. 5, which was constructed under the supervision of Franlinz, Cert, and by the same contractors, Mr. Cranston stated that he did not know, as no investigation had been made.

It is possible that the state engineer will be called in to examine the dam. The advice of Prof. L. G. Carpenter, now in Washington on the Colorado-Kansas water suit before the supreme court, will also be sought.

Mr. Carpenter is being retained by the city in an advisory capacity, and whatever suggestions he makes will probably be carried out. The plans for the dam made by former City Engineer Case were approved by Prof. Carpenter when state engineer, and had they been conscientiously followed out, there is no room for doubt that the dam would have been water tight.

RULE FOR DOMESTIC BLISS.

Although a wedded life of sixty years without a single quarrel may seem to the average man and woman somewhat monotonous, still this is the continuous love story of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Blakesly, of Chicago, who celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their marriage yesterday evening. Of course, there was a crowd of people at the party. Everybody wanted to know how they managed it. And after supper Mrs. Blakesley gave her opinion on the subject. "Never quarrel and you will be happy. Just feed your husband well, and humor him, and make him think he is having his own way. Make your husband stay in at night. Adapt yourself to your husband's fortune and make the best of it."

JAPANESE GIRLS IN SCHOOL.

According to the Japan Chronicle the number of girls now receiving a school education in Japan is more than eight times the female school attendance of ten years ago. Figures given out by the Tokio Educational society show that fifteen years ago the percentage of females admitted to the training school for teachers was less than 20, as compared with the men but today the rate has been completely reversed, the number of male applicants being now about 15 per cent of the total.

THE WORD "STUDIO."

"Studio" is one of the many foreign words that have acclimated themselves in the English language. It is a recent import from Italy, unknown to Johnson's dictionary and apparently not occurring before the nineteenth century, but it has supplied a want. "Study," which is the real English for "studio," suggests a room for reading and writing and "workroom" lacks distinctiveness. The French get along with "atelier," which literally means a place in which small planks are prepared—in other words, a carpenter's workshop.

STANDARD OIL TRIAL

CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY AGAINST TRADE.

Penalty Prescribed Is Fine of From $50,000 to $65,000, or Term Of Imprisonment.

FINDLAY, Oct. 9.—The suit of the state of Ohio against the Standard Oil Co. of Ohio, in which the company is charged with conspiracy against trade, began here today and progressed at a rapid pace.

The penalty prescribed is a fine of from $50,000 to $65,000, or from six to twelve months imprisonment.

A jury was secured in less than two hours. County Prosecutor W. L. David presented his case; Virgil P. Kline, attorney for the defense, made answer; Attorney Phelps for the prosecution then read documentary evidence until the court adjourned. He promised to continue the reading during the greater part of tomorrow.

In brief Mr. David stated to the jury that the Standard Oil company became a trust in 1882 and although it had several times changed the form of its organization, had not ceased to commit the offenses of a trust.

Replying, Mr. Kline characterized as mere matters of ancient history the relation of the original formation of the trust. The Standard Oil company, he said, was a corporation controlled entirely by its stockholders; it was in no way a trust; it could not be said that any of the statements of Mr. David relative to the early history of the organization were true, but if they were, they were not within the limits of Hancock county and therefore without the jurisdiction of the court.

The company, he said, sold some of it at retail in the county and might own some real estate here, but the statement that it was in any combination was entirely unsupported by the facts.

The documentary evidence which the prosecution began submitting, and which constitutes the bulk of their case, is contained in a document authenticated by the supreme court of the state as the history of the Standard Oil litigation before that body. It was all objected to by the defense as irrelevant, but allowed to go in by Judge Baker, presiding. The documents read today included the original trust agreement of 1882, the pleadings in the case before the supreme court in 1892, which resulted in the order to dissolve the trust; the pleadings before the same court in 1897 resulted in a journal entry by the court that the trust had been dissolved. The interrogatories propounded to John D. Rockefeller during the litigation which the prosecution desired to be read had just been reached when adjournment was taken until tomorrow.

John D. Rockefeller was originally a party to the suit, but was granted a separate trial, the date of which will depend on the success of the state in the present proceedings. It is said Mr. Rockefeller will not be a witness and will not attend the trial.

The Buckeye Pipe Line company and Manhattan Oil company, both state corporations, are also defendants, but have also secured separate trials.

The trial is before Judge G. G. Banker and a jury. The Standard is represented by general counsel of the company, F. M. Elliott, of New York, Virgil P. Kline of Cleveland, and James O. Troup of Bowling Green, Ohio. The prosecution is being conducted by Prosecutor David of Hancock county, assisted by George F. Phelps, a local attorney.

Not a hundred persons were present when the court convened at 9 o'clock. Wade H. Ellis, attorney general of Ohio, and O. E. Harrison of his office, were present to aid the prosecution.

The work of selecting the jury began without delay. Prosecutor David accepted the first twelve men drawn. Attorney Kline for the Standard, however, had the court excuse three of the twelve on their statement that they had formed an opinion in the case.

At a meeting of the board of stockholders of the trust, called to dissolve the trust, in compliance with the order of the court, he said there was present for the company "a very great and learned lawyer by the name of Dodge, who introduced a resolution formally setting out a new plan of organization."

In explaining this new plan, which was adopted, Mr. Dodge was quoted by Mr. David as saying to the stockholders:

"Your interests will be the same then as now. Corporations will continue to do business as heretofore, and your proportion of their earnings will not be changed. You will understand that A will not get stock in one corporation and B in another, but each will get his due proportion in the stocks of all."

"At this meeting," Mr. David continued, "arrangements were made for winding up the affairs of the trust and liquidating trustees were chosen, being the same as the old trustees, which he again named. In 1899 John D. Rockefeller and the same trustees were still controlling the policies and business of the Standard Oil trust, and at that time only about 60 per cent of the trust certificates had been exchanged under the terms of the Dodge resolution."

The contempt proceedings instituted against the trust in 1898 by Attorney General Monett of Ohio, but which the supreme court of the state dismissed, were here explained to the jury. It was during the pendency of these proceedings that another form was given the organization. The Standard Oil company of New Jersey was organized as a holding company with a capital stock of $110,000,000 and increased corporate power. John D. Rockefeller, he said, was the largest stock owner and was president of the corporation between 1899 and 1901. Mr. David said the New Jersey organization issued $98,000,000 of capital stock and purchased nearly all of the stock of the subsidiary companies in the trust company.

"ARIZONA" DRAWS BIG HOUSE

Sterling Drama of Army Life Presented by Capable Company.

"Arizona," Augustus Thomas' thrilling [illegible] of life in a southwestern [illegible] post, seems already to have taken its place in the small list of perennial favorites headed by "Rip Van Winkle" and "The Old Homestead." It is now in its eighth season, and though the performance at the Opera house last night was the fourth in Colorado Springs, it attracted what the country papers call a "large and appreciative audience." And without doubt, if the play is brought here again next season, as it certainly will be, its drawing power will be as great as ever. It is a strong play, vivid, intensely dramatic, entirely truthful as a picture of the life it sets forth, and finally its people are living, breathing human beings.

Considering the time the play has been on the road, the company which presented it here last night is remarkably good. Edward J. Farrell, as Lieutenant Denton, is a worthy successor to Dustin Farnum, of the original company. Thomas Lingham as Captain Hodgman, went through the entire performance without being hissed once by the gallery, which might be taken as evidence that he isn't a sufficiently villainous villain. Joseph Green, as Canby, and Escamillo Fernandez, as Tony, the Mexican vaquero, supply plenty of local atmosphere, and a further touch is added by Jack Ferris as Sam Wong, the Chinese cook. The part of Col. Bonham, the injured husband, is played with good effect by Clarence Heritage.

The role of erring wife is always a difficult one, but there is little criticism to be made of the work of Miss Alma Powell as Estrella Bonham. Miss Alma Bradley, who in the same company last season played the part of Lena, is a bright and vivacious Bonita, and Sadie Duff is highly amusing as Mrs. Canby, the peppery wife of the ranchman.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Hospital guild will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. W. S. Tarbell, 1823 North Cascade avenue. Members and friends are invited to attend.

The regular meeting of the Bible study class of the First Presbyterian church will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the church. The Rev. Edgar W. Work will be in charge of the class. The subject will be "Titus."

MAGOON ARRIVES

except as hereinafter provided, there shall be full and complete amnesty and pardon to all who directly or indirectly participated in the recent insurrection in Cuba or who gave aid or comfort to persons participating therein, and for political offenses committed in the course of said insurrection.

"The amnesty is declared to cover rebellion, sedition and conspiracy. It gives immunity from prosecution for seizures and expropriation of property for military use by the insurrectionary forces and proceedings already under way [illegible] which are annulled and ordered to be discontinued forthwith. Prosecutors are ordered to have the proclamation applied to cases in which judgment already has been rendered and [illegible] of those in which sentence is being served. After declaring that the procedure set forth in the first preceding clauses is to be followed in the prosecutions now pending on account of the assaults on the rural guardsmen at Guanabacoa and in the Villuendas case, full and complete pardon being granted to all offenders in each of these cases, the proclamation further says:

Ordinary Cases of Crime.

"Pardon is hereby granted to ordinary cases of crimes not comprised within the terms of this amnesty, but crimes punishable under the existing law by correctional or light penalties and committed prior to their disarmament and disbandment by members of the insurrectionary forces, who complied in good faith with the agreement of disarmament and disbandment may be made the subject of special application for pardon."

In order to facilitate the re-establishment of normal conditions of peace, it is ordered that in every action where the plaintiff, by proper evidence and identification, proves his title, it shall nevertheless be sufficient defense if the possessor of the horse by lawful evidence shall establish that he was a member of the late forces in the insurrection and had possession of the horse on October 1, and that he received a certificate from his brigade commander turning over the animal to his custody.

When asked for a statement today concerning the plan to construct the Panama canal by contract, Governor Taft replied that he had not had time to think of the canal. All matters pertaining thereto, he said, must be settled by the authorities at Washington or await his return.

SUFFERED AGONIES FOR FOUR YEARS

Whole Foot Nothing But Proud Flesh—Tried Different Physicians and All Kinds of Ointments—Could Walk Only With Crutches—Ohio Man Says:

"CUTICURA REMEDIES THE BEST ON EARTH"

"In the year 1899 the side of my right foot was cut off from the little toe down to the heel, and the physician who had charge of me was trying to grow up the side of my foot, but with no success. When he found out that wouldn't work, he began trying to heal the wound with all kinds of ointment, until at last my whole foot and way up above my calf was nothing but proud flesh. I suffered untold agonies for four years, and tried different physicians and all kinds of ointments. I could walk only with crutches. It is sixteen months ago since I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment for my limb and foot. The first two months the Cuticura Remedies did not seem to work, but I kept on using the both. In two weeks afterwards I saw a change in my limb. Then I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment often during the day and kept it up for seven months, when my limb was healed up just the same as if I never had trouble.

"It is eight months now since I stopped using Cuticura Remedies, the best on God's earth. I am working at the present day, after five years of suffering. The cost of Cuticura Ointment and Soap was only $6; but the doctors' bills were more like $600. You can publish my name and refer any one to write to me about Cuticura Remedies. I will answer all letters if postage is enclosed. John M. Lloyd, 718 S. Arch Ave., Alliance, Ohio, June 27, 1905."

SIX SPEECHES IN WICHITA

Bryan Spends Busy Day.—Is Interested in Success of His Political Ideas.

WICHITA, Kan., Oct. 9.—W. J. Bryan made six speeches here today, being accorded a great reception by members of all parties. Five thousand persons heard him tonight in the Coliseum at Wonderland park. He declared that he was more interested in the success of the political ideas which he had been advocating that in furthering his own candidacy for any office. "The people of this country have for a generation paid too much homage to men with money," he said, "but a change is now taking place."

As evidence of this, he cited the controversy in a missionary council over the question of accepting a donation from John D. Rockefeller. "Heretofore the object has seemed so good that churches and schools have been glad to accept such funds and ask no questions. The discussion arising recently indicates that the time is coming when the unjustly rich man must spend his money himself. I will be glad to see that day. I shall rejoice when it becomes the custom to say to the rich man who thus tries to ease his conscience and to buy the good will of his fellow men: 'No, you got your money by violating your obligations to be just and humane to the poor man, and you may now keep it to learn how poor is the man who has nothing but money.'"

Mr. Bryan then elaborated upon his well-known ideas against government by injunction and in favor of arbitration of labor disputes. He advocated an income tax for the support of the general government. "I propose to stand for such a tax," he said, "until the constitution is amended to read so clear that no nine judges, nor any judge, can ever change his mind or read it any other way." He declared he had returned from the Philippines more than ever convinced that the islands should be independent, though he thought the American colonial system an improvement over the English system as he saw it in India.

At the Wichita High school Mr. Bryan spoke of the progress of the world toward peace and brotherhood. At Mount Carmel seminary he spoke of the higher appreciation of women which had obtained wherever the Catholic church had influence. His night meeting closed at 9 o'clock, after which he attended a minstrel performance by the local Elks lodge.

At 9:45 he left for Nevada, Mo., where he speaks tomorrow.

STARRETT WILL WITHDRAW

Morton Jones, Who Resigns as Deputy, to Take Place on Ticket as County Clerk.

Deputy County Clerk Morton Jones, who is a candidate for the office of county clerk on the Independent and regular Lindsey tickets, will also be the candidate of the regular Democrats, according to Clyde L. Starrett, the present Democratic candidate.

"I will withdraw my name as a candidate for county clerk on the ticket," said Starrett, yesterday, "and Jones will be put on in my place. The law allows a withdrawal and substitution at any time 25 days prior to election."

As J. P. Bussey has declined the nomination on the Burns Lindsey ticket, this will leave Jones the only candidate against Joseph H. Schisler, Republican candidate for county clerk.

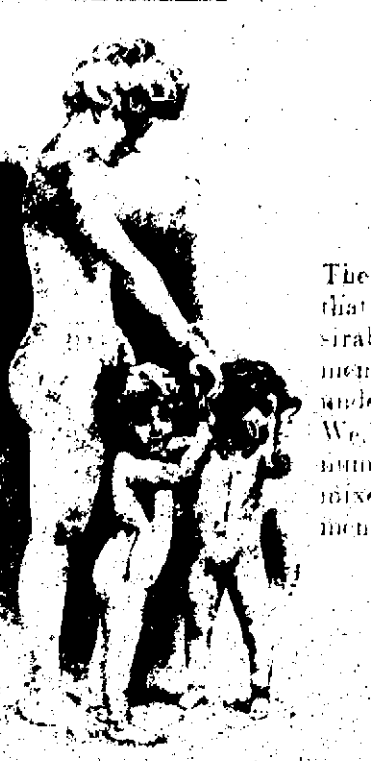

As a result of a controversy between Deputy Jones and County Clerk W. H. Reed over the filing of the Independent and regular Lindsey tickets, by Jones in the county clerk's office at midnight last Sunday, Jones has severed his connection with the office to take effect Saturday. Reed has not appointed Jones' successor.

It is understood that Reed accused Jones of having a secret understanding with N. S. Gandy and W. C. Robinson to file the regular Lindsey ticket at 12:01 o'clock Monday morning in the county clerk's office. Jones resented criticism of his act, his counter criticism of Reed's action in filing the Burns Lindsey ticket at Reed's house at midnight, leading to hot words and Jones' resignation.

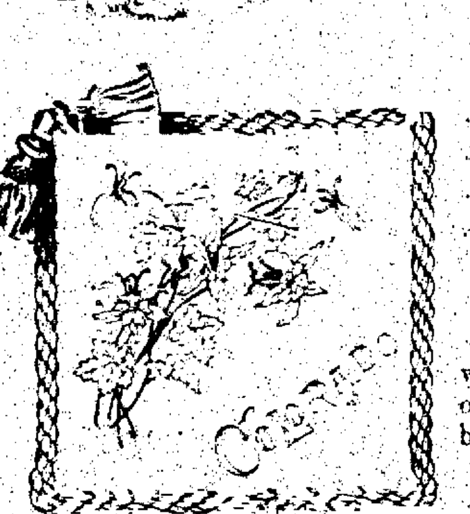

"Were you discharged or did you resign," Jones was asked. "It amounted to the former," he replied.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1906.

THE MAYOR'S SALARY.

THE proposal that the salary of the Mayor of Colorado Springs be increased from $1,800 to $3,000 a year, and that he be required to devote his entire time to the duties of the position is sound common sense, and ought to be enacted into law. So also ought the provision of the proposed ordinance which gives the Mayor the power of appointing several of the officials who, under the present ordinance, are appointed by the Council.

Colorado Springs is no longer a town, but a rapidly growing city of more than 35,000 people, and it is certain within a few years to have a population of at least 50,000. The duties of the Mayor have increased rapidly even since we became a city of the first class, and the demands on his time and energies are such that only by devoting himself entirely to municipal business could his office be properly administered. The Mayor's salary is now $1,800 a year, or $150 a month, and it is obvious that no man who possesses the ability requisite for the place can afford to give the city his entire time for such small compensation. Mayor Hall has given the city far more than $150 worth of his time each month, measured either by its value to him or to the city. For the next administration we may not be so fortunate in getting a chief executive of Mr. Hall's ability and energy who will be willing to give so much and receive so little in return.

There is scarcely any room for argument as to the wisdom of requiring the Mayor to devote all of his time to municipal work, so the real question is the amount of compensation to be fixed. If the city is to get the services of men of high ability and integrity, $3,000 a year is a small enough salary. Men of such ability are almost invariably engaged in some business or profession that pays them even better, and the honor which attaches to the position would [illegible] compensate in most cases for any financial loss involved in accepting it.

The Mayor ought by all means to be charged with all of the executive functions of the city government, standing in the relation to the city that the Governor does to the state, or the President to the nation, and the Council should be a legislative body only, just as the state legislature or the national Congress is. As things stand now the functions of these two branches of the municipal government are somewhat mixed, the appointing power being vested partly in the Mayor and partly in the Council.

The changes proposed in the revised ordinance are based on common sense and good business, and ought to be enacted into law.

BUILDING THE CANAL BY CONTRACT.

THE announcement that the Panama Canal Commission has decided to complete the construction work on the canal by contract, is not surprising considering the difficulties that have already been encountered by the Government in carrying forward the enterprise on its own account. The Commission's reasons for this change are not stated, but it is explained that in a few days it will make public a statement of them. When this is done it will probably be found that the reasons are entirely good and sufficient, and we believe that the results will prove the wisdom of the change.

The contract method was suggested several months ago, but at that time the preparatory work had not been completed, nor had any excavation been done except what was necessary as a part of this preparatory work. In practically all great industrial [illegible] conducted by the Government it has been found that better results can be obtained by letting the work out by contract either one or several, depending on the character of the job. The Panama Canal is the most formidable enterprise of its kind ever undertaken by this or any other government. It involves the excavation of enormous quantities of dirt and rock and their removal to the various dumping places, railroad building, the construction of wharves and harbor facilities and finally the housing, feeding and sanitary care of an army of workmen numbering many thousands. It is apparent that certain parts of this work can be done better by contracting firms which already possess the organization and equipment than by the general Government. Of course there is no firm of contractors in the world that is already equipped to carry on so vast an enterprise as the excavation alone, but the commission will doubtless adopt the plan of dividing the canal into sections, each of which will be let to a different company.

Of course there will be the danger of a contractor failing to fulfill his contract, as was recently the [illegible] in the construction of the Gunnison tunnel, but this is a risk involved in the execution of any contract. However the Canal Com[illegible] every [illegible] make [illegible]

The most interesting [illegible] Canal this [illegible] will be President [illegible] visit to the Canal Zone, which [illegible] will be the second time in the history of the United States that a President has left American soil or ventured beyond the three-mile limit at sea. Mr. Roosevelt violated the tradition for the first time [illegible] when he sailed from New Orleans to Washington, but as he made the trip aboard an American warship which is technically American soil, and made no stops en route, it was not as though he had entered a foreign country. The coming trip will be of similar nature. The Canal Zone is American territory, but it is possible that he may stop off at Havana. In the light of recent events it would be hard to say that he would actually be on foreign soil when in Cuba, but even if he were, the whole question is merely one of respect for tradition and President Roosevelt has seldom allowed such questions to prevent the attainment of a desired object.

THE CHAMPIONSHIP BASEBALL SERIES.

BREATHES there a man with soul so dead that he can't get wildly, insanely excited over a good game of base ball? If so he doesn't deserve the name American. Other games may come and go, but baseball goes on forever. It became established as preeminently the American game at a time when the fathers of the present generation were wearing the grass off the back lots and the skin off their elbows and knees sliding for home. Football, tennis, polo, golf—all other outdoor games have their devotees, but there is no other, not even football, that claims the attention—aye, the devotion—of the entire American people in anything like the same degree as base ball.

The game is an epitome of American life, and in [illegible] country could it attain anything like the popularity it enjoys here, for no other people possess the American temperament. A game of baseball is an expression of the American craze for having things done and done quickly. Your stolid, beefy Englishmen prefers cricket, a game of which may last for two days, giving him plenty of opportunity for quiet meditation on its nice points, but an American—never. Cricket is too slow. It lacks ginger and snap and go. From the American viewpoint, there is no sport at all in hitting a slow ball with a bat six inches wide. Under such conditions somebody is hitting it all the time, and this makes it a "sure thing" proposition.

The American prefers a "pitchers' battle." The rules of baseball are devised so as to make the scoring of runs as difficult as possible, and the balance between the opposing sides is so delicately adjusted that the most consummate skill and strategy must be exercised by the one to prevent scoring and by the other to accomplish it.

The tremendous popularity of this splendid sport was shown in Chicago yesterday at the beginning of the series of games to be played between the Chicago National and American League teams for the championship of the world. More than 20,000 admission tickets were sold at double the usual prices and the enthusiasm was so great that the game entirely absorbed public attention for the day. A foreigner viewing such an American crowd for the first time might think that the entire people had gone crazy on the subject of baseball, but the scene in Chicago yesterday was by no means abnormal. It would have been just the same in any other American city, and this will continue so long as baseball remains the clean, manly sport that it is now.

Colorado Comment

THE MEANEST MAN IN THE WORLD.

From the Durango Democrat.

Once upon a time the devil called together the meanest men in hell in order that he might select one to take his place while he took a short vacation. The contest finally narrowed down to three men and his majesty told each to repeat the meanest thing he had done while on earth in order that he might choose the one most entitled to the job of running hell, says C. E. Ingalls. The first one told of being one time lost in a strange country and that after he had wandered around for many days and was faint and sick for want of nourishment, a good old man and his wife found him and took him home with them. They fed him and cherished him, brought him back to health and strength, gave him clothes and money and started him on his way. That night he came back, tied the old people up and tortured them with hot irons till they told him where their money was. This he took and then set fire to the house and escaped. The second man then stated that he had taken his local paper for several years without paying for it and finally put it back in the box marked "refused." "You are the man I want," said the devil, "it is useless to look further. Take my horns, tail hoofs and spear. You are hereby created devil-regent forever." And to this day whenever there is an especially disreputable deed to be done, the devil is said to turn it over to his shameless deputy.

AN INDICATION OF PROSPERITY.

From the Pueblo Chieftain.

There is no better index of business conditions than the newspapers of a community, and judged by this standard the business conditions and prospects of southern and western Colorado are most favorable. Within the past six months many of the newspapers of this region have made remarkable changes looking toward the betterment of their service to their readers. Semiweeklies have become dailies, weeklies have been changed to semiweeklies and the smaller dailies have made marked improvements.

Never before in a similar period has there been so much new machinery delivered or ordered, and new presses and typesetting machines especially testify to the confidence which the newspaper makers of Colorado have in their local communities.

No one region seems to have a monopoly on the prosperity, but the Arkansas valley, the San Luis, the San Juan, the Gunnison and the Grand valleys all share in the good fortune.

It is also noteworthy that the newspapers are not only the index of prosperity, but they are to a large degree the makers of prosperity.

Southern and western Colorado could not ask for any better or more effective step toward the rapid progress in wealth and population than an enlargement of the plants and equipment of its newspapers. In no other business, [illegible] large a part of the product put back into the ground and turned over and over again for the benefit, not only of the proprietor and promoter, but also for every member of the community in which the newspaper is located.

HOW LONG WILL IT LAST?

From the Telluride Daily Journal.

How long will the blind, unreasoning political demagoguery of promiscuous [illegible] continue to influence and lead the people, or at least seemingly a majority of them? With denunciation of corporations as his war cry, Tom Patterson, a millionaire not a dollar of which he acquired in any [illegible] commercial or industrial [illegible] with [illegible] denunciation of corporations as his war cry [illegible] the democratic convention and [illegible] as [illegible] the plastic [illegible] intelligence [illegible] and how idiotic is this campaign slogan, this assault upon the corporations of the country, and what must be the thinking that is susceptible to such arguments? How ridiculous it is to assume that because a man owns stock in or is perhaps an official in a corporation that he is necessarily a scoundrel. The fact that a corporation asks favors of a municipal, state or a federal administration does not presuppose that the favors are such as ought not to be granted—usually redounding in great benefit to the grantor—or that venal influences will be employed in securing them.

LIEUT. PIKE'S DIARY

For One Hundred Years Ago Today

Friday 10th October—Marched at seven o'clock, and halted at twelve to dine. Were overtaken by the Pawnee chief whose party we had left, who informed us the hunting party had taken another road, and that he had come to bid us good-bye. We left a large ridge on our left, and at sundown crossed it. From this place we had an extensive view to the southwest. We observed a creek at a distance, for which I meant to proceed. The Doctor, interpreter and myself arrived at eight o'clock at night, found water and wood, but had nothing to eat. Kindled a fire, in order to guide the party, but they not being able to find the route and not knowing the distance, encamped on the prairie without wood or water.

Press Opinions

ATLANTA RECOVERING.

From the New York Evening Post.

Atlanta is recovering from her outburst of race madness, of which she is now heartily ashamed. A cheering sign of restored sanity is the presentment of the Atlanta News by the grand jury of Fulton county as the direct provocative agent of the murderous riots. The sensational and inflammatory methods of the News deserve, says the grand jury, "our severest condemnation," and it calls for the cessation of such journalism, "in the interest of law and order." This is putting the cap precisely where it fits. The public arraignment must cut deep. We notice that the Atlanta Journal, Hoke Smith's paper, repents of the evil to which it has contributed so much—namely, the "untimely and unnecessary" discussion of the negro problem "through the newspaper." It is something, when politicians and editors who have lashed themselves into an artificial excitement, in order to get office or make money, thus recoil before their own horrible success. The Journal states that the trouble had its origin in the low dives, where the worthless and criminal of both races congregate, and admits that the frenzied mob "murdered and maltreated inoffensive and defenseless negroes." Thus Atlanta is getting over her temporary loss of reason; but the duty of looking for the true causes of the lapse into barbarism remains. One of the undoubted causes is plainly given by "A Southerner," who writes to the Columbia (S. C.) State, of his personal observations "in almost every nook of every county in every state of the South." He asserts that "much of this trouble is caused by the vile, low, contemptible cohabitation of self-styled Southern gentlemen with negro women." It is a Southern man who makes this statement; a Southern newspaper that prints it. The witness adds: "What I am writing here is no secret . . . Our women know it, and blush with shame."

FOR A STARTER.

From the New York Tribune.

Mr. Hearst, in his Madison Square Garden speech on Friday night, expressed the opinion that "one law-defying millionaire in jail will do more than any other single thing to elevate the moral tone of the community."

A short time before Mr. Hearst was volubly declaiming against a certain rich man, whom he described as living in luxury while he ground the faces of the poor, as "the chief criminal of them all," as one who "should be in Sing Sing, wearing stripes," and as a vile criminal who should be transported from Delmonico's to Sing Sing, and who would be thus transported if the thing could be done.

Since the Buffalo convention is Mr. Hearst still inclined to send Mr. Charles Francis Murphy "from Delmonico's to Sing Sing" in order to "elevate the moral tone of the community?" How would that do for a starter?

LOAFERS IN SOUTHERN CITIES.

From the Hartford Courant.

One of the crying needs of Georgia and Virginia and every other southern state of which we have knowledge is good roads. Strapping loafers, idle, vicious, predacious, swarm to the city dives, congregate on the street corners, prowl, thieve and terrorize out in the lonesome, ill-policed country. They are a daily curse to themselves and a daily menace to the community. Compelled to labor—on the roads, upon state farms, at any kind of useful work—they would be removed from their haunts, out of temptation's way, under strict discipline, earning their bread and bacon, producers instead of as now, drones, pilferers and incipient felons.

SANITARY REFORM IN TEXAS.

From the Quincy (Ill.) Whig.

Citizens of Columbus, Tex., held mass meetings to denounce the careless habit of certain feudists in shooting each other upon the public highways. The residents say that the streets belong to the people, but not for the purpose of artillery practice. The feudists have grown so shiftless and irresponsible that they leave the sidewalks all mussed up with the products of their handiwork, and almost every morning the hired girl has to come out with the garden hose and wash up the ruddy evidence of the schutzenfest of the previous night. The innocent bystander who steps forth to gaze at the vista is liable to be unwittingly filled so full of lead that his remains are worth more at the foundry than the morgue.

ON THE JOY LINE IN KANSAS.

From the Marion (Kas.) Record.

Every once in a while some cheerful individual remarks to us: "Well, now that the paper is out I suppose you can take it easy for three or four days." Yes, how delightful it is that a country editor has practically nothing to do between press days. Business runs along automatically. When paper bills come due money drops off the trees with which to pay them. Subscribers vie with each other to see who can pay the farthest in advance. Advertisers beg for additional space. And the way the news hunts up the editor is also pleasant to contemplate. There is something really strange about the way news items act. When the paper is out the editor simply goes to his desk and leans back in his easy chair and looks wise and waits for next week's press day. The day before press day the people line up in front of the office door and then they file past his desk and tell him all the news of the week. He writes it up in fifteen or twenty minutes, takes it back and hangs it on the hook. The compositors take the copy, shake it over the type cases, say a few mystic words, the type files into place, and after a few passes by the foreman the forms are ready for the press again. And the editor goes down and deposits some more money in the bank. It is the greatest snap in the catalogue. Now if the editor could only do away with press day, his joy would be complete.

BUT YOU NEVER HEARD

Here the telephonic bells—
Nickel plated bells.
What a nervous agitation in their petulancy dwells,
How our tempers they excite,
Through the day or in the night,
As we hear the operator's shouts and yells!
"Hello," he says, "hell-o,"
And we wish he'd thither go,
For no tomcat caterwauling to such helpless wrath impels;
And everybody knows
By the bawling
And the calling
How the conversation flows,
As his thoughts into the instrument repeatedly he tells—
As his thoughts with maledictions he continually tells—
Tells, tells, tells,
And again he rings the bells
But the fellow at the other end is disinclined to go
So once more he instills
Some hyph-ened syl-la-bles,
Like a jackdaw in a panic,
And with vigor quite satanic,
It is wrong to tear your hair,
And worse, they say, to swear
By this or that or here or there or any other where
But that was said
Before were made
Those palpitating, fast-vibrating telephonic bells—
Bells, bells, bells, bells,
And the yells, yells, yells
Of the speakers and the hearers at those bells.
—Belfast (Ireland) Gazette.

POLITICS.

The time now comes when politics
Engrosses our attention,
And rival candidates will be
Embroiled in fierce dissension.

We'll learn that William Henry Jones,
Who sat next to us in school,
Is by opponents held to be
An unmitigated fool.

And what we thought were William's brains
We'll hear are flabby tissues,
He'll be declared incompetent
To talk about the issues.

His honesty will be assailed
Without regret or feeling,
He'll be accused of grafting tricks,
Perhaps of downright stealing.

But William needs no sympathy,
It will presently be seen
That his opinion isn't much
Of his rival, Peter Green.

The things he'll say of Peter Green
Would make any mortal squirm,
And long for the obscurity
Of a lowly, humble worm.

But thus it goes in politics,
It's the way they play the game;
You're branded as a rascal, and
Your opponent is the same.

FEEDING BRITISH TARS

With What the Sailors Under the White Ensign Keep Their Courage Up.

From the Pall Mall Gazette.

One of the schedules of the shipping acts amendment act sets out a scale of provisions to be followed on board ship in the future. In the first place, it is stipulated that on three days of the week, Sundays, Tuesdays and Thursdays, soft bread shall be served, when practicable, one pound for each day, the same weight of biscuit per man to take the place of soft bread for the remaining days. The dietary scale as regards meat and other provisions is set out in a carefully varied form, with arrangements for substitutions and equivalents as occasion requires. The primary weekly menu is as follows:

Sundays ¾ pound of salt beef, ¾ pound preserved meat, and ½ pound flour.

Mondays—1 pound of salt pork and ¼ pound rice.

Tuesdays—1¼ pounds of salt beef, ½ pound of flour, and 4 ounces oatmeal.

Wednesdays ¾ pound of preserved meat, ¼ pound preserved vegetables, and ½ pound flour.

Thursdays—1 pound of salt pork and ¼ pound rice.

Saturdays—1¼ pounds of salt beef, ½ pound flour, and 4 ounces oatmeal.

In addition to these daily rations there are weekly allowances of 6 pounds of potatoes, two-thirds of a pint of split peas, one-third of a pint of green peas, one-third of a pint of cavalances or haricot beans, 1¾ ounces of tea, 4 ounces of coffee, 1¼ pounds of sugar, one-third of a pound of condensed milk, ½ pound of butter, 1 pound of marmalade or jam, ½ pound of sirup or molasses, 4 ounces of suet, ½ pint of pickles, 5 ounces dried fruits, 2 ounces fine salt, 3 ounces onions, and ¼ ounce each of mustard, pepper and curry powder. These items together amount to a total of about 36 pounds per week, or a little over 5 pounds of food per man per day. Climate and other circumstances, of course, render some variations necessary, and it is, therefore, provided that within the tropics 1¼ pounds of preserved meat or 3 pounds of fresh meat may be substituted for 2 pounds of salt pork. It is compulsory to issue fresh potatoes for the first eight weeks of the voyage in the case of every ship leaving port within the home trade limits at any time between the last day of September and the first of May and any time when they can be procured at reasonable cost, and when fresh potatoes are not so issued, yams or preserved potatoes are to be used as a substitute.

There are epicures among "Jack's" guardian angels in the legislative assembly who appreciate that next in importance to good food is a good cook, and hence it is provided that after the year 1908 every British foreign-going ship of 1,000 tons and upward going to sea from any place in the British islands shall carry a duly certified cook, able to prove six months service at sea in some capacity and holding a certificate of competency in cooking granted by the board of trade or by some school of cookery.

TWO WISHES.

From the Philadelphia Press.

"My husband," said Mrs. Housekeep, "has been complaining a good deal lately because his dinner hasn't been served on time."

"Gracious!" exclaimed Mrs. Clubb, "I wish my husband would."

"You do?"

"Yes, because he'd have to come earlier to do it."

WEALTH FROM JUNK.

Thieves Reaping a Harvest from San Francisco Ruins.

From the San Francisco Chronicle.

Copper wire to the value of $500 was stolen from the Postal Telegraph company's former office about 12 o'clock Wednesday night. A gang of five men carried fifteen coils of wire to a wagon, which was driven by a member of the gang, and before the arrival of a patrol wagon loaded with policemen, under Detective Sergeant Ed Gibson, the thieves escaped with their booty.

Not only the telegraph companies, but the united railroads and the telephone company, have been heavy losers from the depredations of a well-organized band of junk thieves, who discriminate in favor of the more valuable junk, such as copper wire and brass findings.

A ready market is found for this loot, some junk dealers making no scruples about purchasing all that is brought to them. The wire is melted into crude ingots and sent to the eastern smelters.

The methods of the thieves in looting the ruins in the burned district are extremely simple. Several members of the gang search the ruins, and after selecting such pieces of junk as will command the highest price, cast it into the street. It is an easy matter for others to gather the junk without attracting attention.

Boys have been engaged by junk dealers to pick up bits of copper, and in this way have contributed largely to making the business of the junk man lucrative.

Great piles of junk of all descriptions are piled in the courtyard in the rear of the police headquarters at the Lowell High school. In the days immediately following the fire the police confiscated quantities of junk and made a great number of arrests. The men arraigned in the police courts are fined a nominal sum, which is quickly paid.

PRAYER BOOKS TO MATCH COSTUMES

From the New York Press.

On week days the fashionable woman in Newport must have her handbag and all little accessories match her costume, and now fashion decrees that on Sunday her prayer book must likewise be a match. In Trinity church last Sunday many lovely ones were seen. Mrs. William Watts Sherman carrying one with covers of lavender leather, which matched her hat, dress and parasol. Her daughter, Miss Irene Sherman, carried one of pale pink leather, which matched her costume of pink, while the other Miss Sherman, who was all in white, carried a beautiful one of white. An elderly woman dressed in deepest mourning had the covers of her prayer book covered with heavy black crepe and the edges bound with gun metal. Fans are also an important part of a costume for church in summer and many of them match the costumes in color, but the most popular ones seem to be small and of white and gold. The chains on which they are worn are beautiful and often of great value.

NATION OF SALT EATERS

A Barrel a Year for Every Three Persons in America.

Washington Correspondence Boston Transcript.

The United States consumes 26,872,700 barrels of salt annually, or a barrel for every three persons in the land. Last year it went abroad for only 1,151,143 barrels. In 1880 63.5 per cent of the salt used in our country was of home production. Last year 95.7 per cent of the product consumed was produced within the borders of this country. In 1880 the consumption in this country was only 9,384,363 barrels. Thus we see that the people of the United States are using annually three times as much salt as they used 26 years ago.

Only 5,961,060 barrels were produced in this country in 1880, and the consumers were forced to go abroad for 3,427,633 barrels. Last year the total production at home was 25,918,122 barrels. The tariff act of 1894 placed salt on the free list, and the importation increased to nearly 900,000,000 pounds the following year. The tariff act of 1897 returned it to the dutiable list, and salt in bags, barrels, or other packages is now subject to a duty of 12 cents a hundred pounds, or 33.6 cents a barrel.

The chief salt-producing states are Michigan and New York. Statistics recently gathered by the government show that the combined output of these two states amounts to more than two-thirds of the total production of the United States.

No attempt has ever been made to ascertain what per cent of the salt consumed in the United States is used for culinary purposes. The annual output is largely consumed in the industries of meat packing, fish curing, dairying and the like. The chlorination of gold ores demands a large quantity, and great quantities of salt in the form of brine are used in the manufacture of soda ash, caustic soda, and other salts. Salt is cheap. The average price for 1905 was a little over 22 cents a barrel, which is lower than that reported in any previous year. Dry salt, of course, brings a higher price than brine. The average price for dry salt last year was 31.51 cents a barrel.

It's very wrong to do an improper thing you are going to get caught at.

What a woman likes about spooning in the moonlight is the way it doesn't hurt her complexion.

A woman would be much crosser than she is if she weren't so busy trying to keep her husband from getting cross.

There is hardly anything that tickles a woman so much as to have you remember her boy's name when you just happened to guess it.

There is money in most any occupation except the one you are in.

It's queer how much shorter a woman's stocking looks when it isn't being worn.

One of the surest ways not to argue with your wife is to have her away for the summer.

FATHER TOOK SON'S WHIPPING

From the New York Press.

The boy had misbehaved, as he often did, and his father called him to account.

"Son," said the father, "I hate to lick you, but some one must get a whipping for what you've done."

The boy whimpered a little.

"Suppose," said the father, "that I take the whipping for you?"

The boy laughed at the idea, but the father took down a dog whip, called a friend who was visiting at the house, explained the situation to him, and then requested the visitor to use the whip on him.

The father wore a long-tailed coat, and the visitor hit the tails of that coat in great style.

At the first crack of that whip the boy was wild-eyed. At the second he was clawing, biting and kicking the man with the whip.

"Don't whip my papa! Don't whip him!" he cried. "Whip me! Oh, whip me!"

That was a year ago. Since then that boy has never done anything seriously wrong.

HOLBROOK & PERKINS

HERE FROM KLONDIKE

R. R. STODDARD, OF VICTOR, TELLS OF FAR NORTH.

Over $10,000,000 Taken Out of the Alaskan Placer Fields Last Year. Wonderful Development.

"Very few people are aware of the immensity of the country referred to generally as Alaska and the Klondike," said R. R. Stoddard to a representative of The Gazette, yesterday. Mr. Stoddard is a mining man formerly of Victor, Colo., who has been for the past eight years in the gold country of the far north. With his wife and child he is at the Alta Vista and intends spending the winter in this state. His home is at Tanana, a placer mining town at the junction of the Tanana river with the Yukon, and the distributing point for the famous Fairbanks placer district.

"During the past season the output in gold from this district was estimated at from $12,000,000 to $14,000,000," said Mr. Stoddard. "And I think the most conservative estimate would not bring it below $10,000,000. The placer work is carried on all winter, the frozen ground being loosened by steam heat and wood fires. In the spring comes the annual cleanup, and sluicing continues through the summer. The most of it is placer work. There are very few quartz propositions in the country."

As an illustration of the remarkable advance made in the Yukon country in the past three or four years, Mr. Stoddard cited the fact that most of the large rivers are now navigated by up-to-date river packets and many of those on the Yukon are capable of carrying from 1,500 to 2,000 tons of freight. Besides the Yukon, which is navigable for a distance at least 2,400 miles, there are other large rivers navigable for hundreds of miles. These include the Tanana, White, Hootalinqua, Porcupine and Koyukuk.

The 750 miles between Tanana and Dawson City is traversed by steamers controlled by the same company which operates the railroad from Skagway to White Horse, a distance of 122 miles. The trip from White Horse to Dawson is likewise made by steamer. The journey from Tanana to Seattle can now be made comfortably in less than 14 days. The vast distances in that region may be illustrated by the distance between Cape Nome to Dawson, which is 1,000 miles.

Mr. Stoddard's little girl, about two years of age, has the possible honor of being the only child in this state to be born so far north. On the day of her birth the thermometer registered close to 70 below zero. She is a remarkably robust and healthy-looking child.

SHEAFOR ISSUES INJUNCTION

Also Order Citing Secretary of State to Appear Saturday.

Signed by five members of the Burns faction, mandamus proceedings were brought in the district court yesterday to compel Secretary of State James I. Cowie to show cause why, at the hearing in his office at Denver on October 1, he threw out the Fourth judicial, Third and Twenty-eighth senatorial and legislative ticket filed by the Burns faction on September 29 as the "Burns Lindsey ticket."

Immediately after the filing of the mandamus petition, Judge J. W. Sheafor signed an order citing Secretary Cowie to appear before him at 10 a. m. Saturday, October 13, to reply. Judge Sheafor also issued a temporary injunction restraining Cowie from taking any action that would affect the Burns Lindsey ticket.

The petition was filed in the district court by H. L. Bishop, H. Douthwaite, R. G. Harrison, S. T. Johnson and C. P. Smith.

CANDIDATES DECLINE

BURNSITES' TROUBLES ARE APPARENTLY ENDLESS.

E. A. Sawyer Declares Placing His Name on Ticket "Unwarranted." Reed Disputes Gandy.

Two citizens of Colorado Springs whose names appeared on the "Burns" county "Lindsey" ticket filed Sunday night, have entered protests against their nomination, both disclaiming all previous knowledge of their candidacy.

Following the statement of James P. Bussey, who on Monday requested The Gazette to publish the fact that he would withdraw as a candidate for county clerk, as his name was placed on the ticket without his knowledge, E. A. Sawyer yesterday gave to The Gazette the following statement, with the requestt that it be published:

"The use of my name on the Burns 'Lindsey' ticket, as printed in The Gazette and Evening Telegraph on Tuesday, was without my knowledge or consent, and was entirely unwarranted." Mr. Sawyer was named for county surveyor.

County Clerk W. H. Reed yesterday characterized as entirely false and unwarranted, the communication from N. S. Gandy, which charges Reed with being implicated with certain Republican politicians in a conspiracy to file the Burns "Lindsey" ticket ahead of the regular Lindsey ticket. According to Reed, the "Burns Lindsey" ticket was handed to him ten days ago, he refusing to file it until the time allowed by law. The ticket was afterward taken away, and again brought to him at midnight last Sunday.

"I filed the ticket at my residence," said Mr. Reed. "Just as I have frequently filed papers before for attorneys."

COLORADO CITY REGISTRATION

Begins Today and Continues Until 15 Days Before Election—Dates for Other Entries.

Citizens of Colorado City who wish to vote at the election on November 6, will have an opportunity to register, beginning today and continuing until about October 20, or 15 days before the election. Registration books will be placed at Epperson's store, on Colorado avenue.

The new registration law applies to only cities having 5,000 or more inhabitants, while in other parts of the state the old law still holds good. In all precincts in El Paso county, with the exception of Colorado Springs and Colorado City, the registration books will be open on Tuesday, October 11, three weeks before election; Tuesday, October 30, one week before election; and on Monday, November 5, the day before election.

NEARLY 10,000 REGISTERED

Politicians Estimate That the Total Vote on Election Day Will Be Close to 8,000.

The total registration in the 60 precincts of El Paso county, while not yet counted, will run between 9,000 and 9,500, according to the estimate of well informed political workers of the city. This total is about 2,500 less than two years ago, during the presidential election, and about 1,000 less than that of last year. The fact that all of this year's registered voters are qualified, will make the total vote next month close to normal.

According to former statistics the registration of about 9,000 voters should result in a vote cast of 7,000, but since the present registration list is just completed, it is thought that almost all who took enough interest to register so recently, will vote on November 6. A vote of approximately 8,000 is expected in El Paso county.

HALF IS IN CONTRACTS

$350,000 OF DRAINAGE TUNNEL COST NOW CERTAIN.

Subscriptions From Many Mining Companies Pledged, but Contracts Not Yet Signed.

Of the $700,000 required for the construction of the deep drainage tunnel in the Cripple Creek district, $350,000 has already been pledged by bonded contracts. It has long been known that between $500,000 and $600,000 was practically pledged by the large mining companies interested, but the first official announcement was made yesterday that contracts for half the required sum were executed and signed.

Following are the companies and the respective amounts agreed upon in their contracts: El Paso, $125,000; Portland, $100,000; Elkton, $75,000, and Mary McKinney, $50,000. The Portland and El Paso companies signed their contracts several weeks ago, the Elkton following closely after. The directors of the Mary McKinney, at the quarterly meeting yesterday, formally ratified the proposition whereby the company subscribed $50,000 toward the tunnel fund. The contract was then signed, and will be delivered today to the tunnel company officials.

It is understood that the Findley and Vindicator companies will sign contracts for subscriptions of $60,000 and $75,000, respectively, to the tunnel fund, while negotiations are progressing for a subscription of $50,000 from the Granite. Other companies are shortly to subscribe.

The contracts are binding in their specifications, the property of the contracting company being liable for the amount promised by the organization.

Many statements have been made regarding the amounts which the several mining companies were supposed to pledge, or which it was understood they would pledge, but today's announcement is the first made of contracts actually signed.

AN EXTRA DIVIDEND

Together With Regular Quarterly Dividend, Will Give Stockholders a Total of $78,265.12.

The directors of the Mary McKinney Mining company, at a meeting in this city yesterday, declared the regular quarterly dividend of 3 cents per share, in addition to an extra dividend, making a total of 6 cents per share on the outstanding capitalization, aggregating $78,265.12. This makes a total of $725,509.12 paid to date by the Mary McKinney company. The dividend also adds materially to the record made by Cripple Creek mining companies during the past twelve days, the total paid or declared during this period now being $337,255.12.

The reorganized capital stock of the Mary McKinney company, including that absorbed from the old Anaconda company, comprised 1,500,000 shares. Of this amount, 194,000 shares are in the treasury, 1,306,000 shares being issued. Of the latter, 1,748 shares, to be exchanged for Anaconda shares, have not been transferred, leaving 1,304,252 shares to receive the benefit of yesterday's dividend. The amount will be disbursed October 25 to stockholders of record October 15.

W. K. RYAN DIES AT LYNCHBURG

Prospective Heir to Millions Passes Away at Virginia Home. Well Known in Springs.

William K. Ryan, well known in Colorado Springs, died Monday at the Ryan country place, at Oak Ridge, near Lynchburg, Va. He leaves a widow and two children, William K., Jr., and Thomas F., Jr.

Mr. Ryan is the son of Thomas F. Ryan, the millionaire, and would probably have fallen heir to over two score millions had he outlived his senior. The deceased was a frequent visitor in Colorado Springs, and during one of his trips here obtained a bonded lease on the Portland property, in the Cripple Creek district, but gave it up on account of the fluctuations in the western market. The last time the Ryans were here was in July, 1905, when they came in a private car and lived in an extensive suite of apartments at the Antlers hotel.

ENROLLMENT IS 4,600

TOTAL NUMBER OF PUPILS IN SPRINGS SCHOOLS.

Board of Education Transacts Much Business at Last Night's Meeting.—Mosley Party Coming.

At the meeting of the board of education last night, bids for the construction of an annex to the [illegible] school building were opened. The lowest bid was from Tusler & Fisher, and the awarding of the contract was referred to the committee on buildings and grounds. The question of several tuition cases was referred to the committee on rules and discipline.

J. R. Deal was appointed [illegible] officer for school district No. 11 at a meeting of the board of education last night.

The appointment of a reception committee to entertain the members of the Mosley commission, who will visit the schools of Colorado Springs some time this coming winter, was referred to the committee on teachers and salaries. The Mosley commission, which consists of about 500 members, comes from England, and will arrive in the United States some time in November. Only a small party will visit the schools in Colorado. The purpose of the commission is to study the American methods of teaching as employed in the public schools.

Miss Edith L. Allen, who has been doing half-day work as teacher, was assigned to the Eighth street school for one-half of the day and to the Steele school for the remainder of the day.

The total enrollment of the schools up to the present is 4,600. Miss Katherine Grayson was engaged to finish the work of cataloguing the school libraries of the city. The secretary was instructed to let contracts for the coal supply for the different schools for the winter.

C. C. Cunningham was made ash collector for the district. The request for additional equipment for the High school battalion was referred to the committee on janitors and supplies.

The building and grounds committee was given charge of securing furniture and fixtures for the new school buildings now being constructed.

COLLEGE PLAYS UTAH NEXT

Regular Football Season Opens Saturday With Utah Up Against [illegible] Aggregation.

The regular football season for Colorado college will formally open next Saturday afternoon, when the Utah university aggregation swoops down upon the city, twenty strong. This is the first game on the championship schedule and as both teams are about evenly weighted, a battle royal is expected. The game was cinched by wire late last night by Manager McClintock.

The coach for the "Mormon" eleven is J. H. Maddock, the former great Michigan star, who will have his team trained in the "Yost" methods of offense and defense. On the other hand, Coach Richards is an ex-Wisconsin player and has introduced many of the systematic plays used by the Wisconsin team in its plan of attack. So that virtually the game between Colorado college and Utah university will be nothing more than arraying Wisconsin tactics against those of the mighty Yost. They will be well worth seeing.

There are several reasons why the local team will strive to capture this game besides the mere pleasure of winning. In the first place, it will establish confidence, in the collegians that they have a team that can amount to something, even in spite of the poor showing made against the light eleven last week. In the second place, and more particularly, there remains a lurking longing in the breasts of the college lads to make up for the defeat sustained two years ago at Utah's hands, before Coach Richards was in charge of the team. These motives will add spice to the playing of the locals, and a victory is an assured fact.

The East Side W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Sterman, 802 East Platte avenue, at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Mrs. R. L. Hamilton, superintendent of evangelistic work, and Mrs. Finney, superintendent of Sabbath observance, will have charge of the meeting.

A Trite Saying.

It is a trite saying that no man is stronger than his stomach. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery strengthens the stomach—puts it in shape to make pure, rich blood—helps the liver and kidneys to expel the poisons from the body and thus cures both liver and kidney trouble. If you take this natural blood purifier and tonic, you will assist your system in manufacturing each day a pint of rich, red blood, that is invigorating to the brain and nerves. The weak, nervous, run-down, [illegible] condition which so many people suffer from, is usually the effect of poisons in the blood; it is often indicated by pimples or boils appearing on the skin, the face becomes thin and the feelings "blue." Dr. Pierce's "Discovery" cures all blood humors as well as being a tonic that makes one vigorous, strong and forceful. It is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes that contains neither alcohol nor harmful habit-forming drugs, and the only one, every ingredient of which has the professional endorsement of the leading medical writers of this country. Some of these endorsements are published in a little book of extracts from standard medical works and will be sent to any address free, on receipt of request therefor by letter or postal card, addressed to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. It tells just what Dr. Pierce's medicines are made of.

The "Words of Praise" for the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed, by leaders in all the several schools of medical practice, and recommending them for the cure of the diseases for which the "Golden Medical Discovery" is advised, should have far more weight with the sick and afflicted than any amount of the so-called "testimonials" so conspicuously flaunted before the public by those who are afraid to let the ingredients of which their medicines are composed be known. Bear in mind that the "Golden Medical Discovery" has THE BADGE OF HONESTY on every bottle wrapper, in a full list of its ingredients.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets [illegible]

Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 31 stamps. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

NEWS OF THE LOCAL COURTS

In the district court, yesterday, [illegible] filed a money demand suit against L. G. Grey, demanding $1,000 balance and $47.37 interest thereon, the alleged unpaid balance on $2,114 worth of Goldfield Comstock Mines company stock, sold by plaintiff to defendant, in Wheeling, W. Va., last April.

Frank Drew yesterday filed suit in the district court to recover from Nina Boyd and John L. Baker the sum of $750, alleged to be due on a promissory note made in December, 1900, by Nina Boyd. The complainant alleges that the two defendants, one as legatee and the other in a financial manner, are interested in the property given as security for the note.

In Justice O. R. Dunnington's court, yesterday, Samuel Barkwell was bound over to the district court in $300 bail, charged with assault with a deadly weapon. Barkwell is accused of assaulting William Tobin with a knife, on July 2.

In the Hill vs. Cowan damage suit, in the county court, yesterday, Judge Robert Kerr, after hearing arguments on both sides, overruled the motion of the defense for a nonsuit, and evidence was begun for the defense. Nothing of an unusual nature developed. The case will probably go to the jury today.

Hattie A. Sturm, yesterday, in the county court, filed suit for divorce from Justus M. Sturm, alleging cruelty. The couple were married in Rushville, Mo., October 25, 1884, and have five children ranging in age from 5 to 18 years.

WAS THROWN INTO FIRE BOX

Fireman Extricates Himself With Difficulty From Perilous Position.—Collision Is Cause.

EVANSTON, Wyo., Oct. 9.—Thrown head first into the fire box by the colliding of his engine with the eastbound Union Pacific Overland limited train and his body completely covered by coal, Fireman Robert McQuien, with almost superhuman strength, extricated himself from the perilous position and barely escaped with his life.

As it is, his head and face are badly burned, neck injured and body bruised, and it is feared that he inhaled some of the flames. The physicians say he has a chance for recovery, but he will be marked for life.

The wreck occurred near the city limits in the west end of Evanston at 7:30 last night. Aside from McQuien, a negro porter was seriously injured and nearly a half score more or less badly bruised.

The flyer was traveling at a high rate of speed when one of the coaches left the rails, carrying the four star cars with it, including the diner and two Pullmans. The coaches turned partly on their side, and that many were not killed is considered a miracle.

When the diner left the track it struck the freight engine, which was on the siding waiting for the passenger to pass and in which Fireman McQuien was working. He was in the act of firing up when the crash came and the impact hurled him forward, his head entering the firebox.

The dining car and the two Pullmans, the Rawlins and the Bernardino, are still lying zigzag in a careened position beside the track with their ends badly damaged. In striking the engine one corner of the diner was completely torn away and the cooking room destroyed.

ASKS FOR PROOF OF GRAFT

Governor Pennypacker Tells Newspapers to Probe Costs of New State Capitol Building.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 9.—Stung by the daily charges of graft in building the new capitol, Governor Pennypacker and Auditor General Snyder this morning addressed the following letter to George W. Ochs of the Philadelphia Ledger, Charles Emery Smith of the Philadelphia Press, and Charles Heustis of the Philadelphia Inquirer:

"Gentlemen—We observe that the newspapers are interested, and very properly interested, in learning the facts concerning the cost of the capitol which was so auspiciously dedicated on Thursday last. We therefore request you to come in person to the office of the governor, in the capitol, on Wednesday, October 17, at 2 p. m., when there will be shown to you the minutes of the board of public grounds and buildings, the advertisements, schedules, plans, bids, receipted bills, and whatever original papers relating to the subject you may wish to examine. The architect will be present to give all needed explanations. This invitation is not at all intended to supersede a detailed investigation which those in authority may hereafter desire to make, but in order that men of responsibility, such as yourselves, may have the opportunity now to see the methods pursued by the board and to inform the public. Very truly yours,

"SAMUEL W. PENNYPACKER.
"WILLIAM P. SNYDER."

RESCUED BY THE POLICE

Man Abused Child; Was About to Be Lynched.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Members of an angry mob were slipping a noose over the head of Sidney Friedberg, accused of attacking a little girl, when policemen arrived and prevented a lynching which would have occurred in New York city. The policemen charged the mob with drawn pistols and clubs and had to drag the man from the infuriated men bent on hanging him.

The mother of Angeline Oisler of 323 East One Hundred and Fiftieth street says that the attack was made three days ago. Mrs. Oisler, with her daughter, have since been looking for Friedberg. They found him in One Hundred and Fiftieth street near Eliot avenue, the little girl pointing him out. The mother called for the police and scratched the man's face. A large crowd was attracted to the scene and some one yelled:

"Lynch the fiend."

A rope was thrown over the limb of a nearby tree and a noose was made when the police arrived.

ALLEGED MURDERER ESCAPES

Breaks Away from Officers Under Fire.

GUTHRIE, Okla., Oct. 9.—A special to the State Capital from Tulsa, I. T., says that Joe Morris, charged with the murder of "Texas" Harper, August 21, today escaped from officers who were bringing him to the federal jail at Tulsa. When the sheriff and deputy in charge of Morris reached Cleveland, Okla., the prisoner made a successful break for liberty under a fusillade from the guns of the officers. A large reward has been offered for his capture.

The case in which Morris is alleged to be the principal, is the one in which the Glenn brothers, millionaire oil operators, were implicated.

Turn Your Face Into Dollars

Many a Man Has Failed Because His Face Was a Picture of Calamity.

It takes sunshine to produce a rose, a perfect rose. And so man, to be successful, must have sunshine inside. The man who has it not, which has no health and no happiness, is sour, surly, pessimistic and a failure. The world already has too many vinegar faces that breathe ill-will and strife. The world wants joy, comfort, sunshine, and will cling to the man who has it, who radiates gladness and triumph wherever he is and under all circumstances.

Some people have a genius for seeking out the disagreeable, the crooked, the bad and the ugly. These are the dyspeptics; they travel in schools; they get together, for they love their kind, and the other fat part of the world will have nothing to do with them.

And why is it that so many people dissolve knowing at the same time that if they do, their lives will be ruined? Some people cannot help it, for pessimism usually comes from bodily disorders, and this cannot always be prevented. The stomach, for instance, is the most common cause of discontent, sour face, recklessness, disgust and lack of ambition. A bad stomach—there is the secret of many a failure. Anyone can have a good stomach, a strong stomach, a stomach that can take care of anything and everything that is put into it, no matter whether it is a very bad stomach now or not. Then why not have it?

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do this very thing. One ingredient of these little tablets digests 3,000 grains of food, and no matter how bad is your dyspepsia or indigestion, these tablets will digest everything in your stomach, thoroughly and completely, and better and quicker than a healthy stomach can do the same thing. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure quickly loss of appetite, brash, irritation, burning sensations, nausea, heartburn, eructations, loss of vim and spirit, bad memory, and dyspepsia and indigestion in their very worst forms.

No other little tablets in the world can do so much. You should carry Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets around with you wherever you go and take them after meals. Then only will you realize what it is to enjoy a meal, and what perfect digestion means. Your whole body and your mind will feel the effects; your vim will increase, you will be more satisfied with what the world does, you will think happier and be happier and your face will be one of supreme contentment. That will bring you success and then more success. Your face will bring you dollars. Try it. It will cost you just 50c for a package of these wonderful Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store on earth.

KIDNAPERS LOSE THEIR NERVE

Police Find Young Labarbera Without Knowing Him and Miss Big Reward.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—The boy, Willie Labarbera, whose case was the most sensational since the kidnaping of Pety Clark, several years ago, was located in the rooms of the Children's society, at 105 Schermerhorn street, Brooklyn. He was so sleepy after having been aroused there shortly after 1 o'clock that he was unable to relate, even in a childish way, any of the experiences he had undergone.

An amazing feature of the affair is that the boy has been virtually in the possession of the police since last Saturday morning, and notwithstanding the fact that various rewards had been offered for his return, including one of $1,000 by the Evening Journal, that his description had been printed in the newspapers and his picture published, and that every policeman had been furnished with a description of him, he was not recognized by a single person during the three days.

Kidnapers Released Him

The little boy, for whose return the kidnapers demanded $5,000, was found wandering about on Washington street near the Brooklyn end of the Brooklyn bridge, last Saturday morning, by Ernest O'Connor of Brooklyn.

O'Connor took him to the station of the bridge police guard as a lost boy. The youngster was unable to tell the police his name and he was sent to the Children's society.

The identification of the boy was the result of a telephone message received at police headquarters shortly after midnight by Detective Petrosini from a source which he said he was unable to divulge, and from which he is also confident of unraveling the rest of the mystery and arresting the kidnaper.

With a photograph of the boy the detective went to the Children's society and easily identified him. The identification was made certain when the parents were aroused from their sleep and taken to headquarters. They found Willie sleeping in a big armchair. The meeting of the mother and her boy was an affectionate one. He put his arms around her neck and cried.

"The bad man! Don't let him kill me!"

The police think that the solution of the mystery was indirectly brought about through a clue which they received Saturday and which they think put them on the trail of the captors. It is their belief that the latter, fearing they were hard pressed and that capture was certain if they remained in charge of the child, set the child at liberty and began hiding their tracks.

Detective Petrosini is counting on making the arrests of the kidnaper within a few hours. He is thought to be a Sicilian.

MANDAMUS PROCEEDINGS

County Officials Will Force Railway to Clear Up Wreck.

KINGFISHER, Okla., Oct. 9.—The discovery of a woman's skirt, glove and [illegible] in the wreck of the day coach of the Rock Island passenger train which was wrecked at the Cimarron river bridge near Dover, September 18, is leading to a renewal of the efforts on the part of the Kingfisher authorities to compel the railroad company to raise or destroy both the day and smoking coaches. It is believed by many that a number of bodies of missing passengers are inside the smoker, the openings to which are choked with sand. It is probable that mandamus proceedings will be brought by the county authorities.

TWO WIVES IN SAME HOUSE

Man Induces Number One to Act as Servant for Number Two.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Madison, Wis., says: Charles H. Sager, 28 years old, his wife, who is the mother of his two small children, and another woman, to whom he was married unlawfully, have been living in the same house since last May, the lawful Mrs. Sager acting as servant in the house of which her rival is mistress. Sager, who is an insurance solicitor and custodian of the buildings of the University of Wisconsin, voluntarily made this confession in court yesterday. Every one concerned is contented with this arrangement of their domestic affairs, both women protesting when the court interfered.

"Charley is a good, kind man, and we shall stick by him through thick and thin," said the second Mrs. Sager after the man in the case had been sent to jail. "Shan't we, Bessie?" she asked of the first Mrs. Sager.

"We surely will stick by him," said the latter.

"So long as the three persons concerned," Mrs. Sager No. 2 went on, "are satisfied with this arrangement I don't think outsiders should interfere and try to make trouble."

Judge Donovan of the municipal court said that the law must take its course and that Sager could not be released, at least until an investigation should have been made.

Both of the women are young and attractive in appearance. The first Mrs. Sager is tall and a blonde. The second is short and a brunette.

While being examined in court on the charge of having assaulted a bartender Sager astonished Judge Donovan by voluntarily telling his story.

MONGOLIA REACHES 'FRISCO.

Pacific Mail Liner, Which Went on Reefs, Reaches Harbor.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 9.—With her forward hold filled with water, the big Pacific Mail liner, Mongolia, which went on the reef at Midway island, September 15, arrived in the harbor this morning, after being obliged to remain outside a day and a night because of the heavy fog. When the Mongolia left Honolulu she had two gaping holes through her double botom and once the ship was under way, the holes began to fill rapidly.

The day following, after she had left Honolulu, Engineer Bunkers was ordered to rig a pump in the hold. They were obliged to work in water which was at times over their heads and with ropes around their waists. At one time the steamer listed heavily to the port side and the officers were uneasy for her safety.

Fortunately, she encountered good weather during the voyage, which began September 30.

MIDDLE LIFE

A Time When Women Are Susceptible to Many Dread Diseases—Intelligent Women Prepare for It. Two Relate their Experiences.

The "change of life" is the most critical period of a woman's existence, and the anxiety felt by women as it draws near is not without reason.

Every woman who neglects the care of her health at this time invites disease and pain.

When her system is in a deranged condition, or she is predisposed to apoplexy, or congestion of any organ, the tendency is at this period likely to become active—and with a host of nervous irritations make life a burden. At this time, also, cancers and tumors are more liable to form and begin their destructive work.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness, inquietude, and dizziness, are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period in life when woman's great change may be expected.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was prepared to meet the needs of woman's system at this trying period of her life. It invigorates and strengthens the female organism and builds up the weakened nervous system.

For special advice regarding this important period women are invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and it will be furnished absolutely free of charge. The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, her assistant before her decease, and for twenty-five years since her advice has been freely given to sick women.

Read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound did for Mrs. Hyland and Mrs. Hinkle:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I had been suffering with displacement of the organs for years and was passing through the change of life. My abdomen was badly swollen; my stomach was sore; I had dizzy spells, sick headaches, and was very nervous. "I wrote you for advice and commenced treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as you directed, and I am happy to say that all those distressing symptoms left me and I have passed safely through the change of life, a well woman. I am recommending your medicine to all my friends."—Mrs. Annie E. G. Hyland, Chestertown, Md.

Another Woman's Case

"During change of life words cannot express what I suffered. My physician said I had a cancerous condition of the female organs. One day I read some of the testimonials of women who had been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I decided to try it and to write you for advice. Your medicine made me a well woman, and all my bad symptoms soon disappeared.

"I advise every woman at this period of life to take your medicine and write you for advice."—Mrs. Lizzie Hinkle, Salem, Ind.

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Hyland and Mrs. Hinkle it will do for other women at this time of life.

It has conquered pain, restored health, and prolonged life in cases that utterly baffled physicians.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds Where Others Fail.

ENGLISHMEN AND AMERICANS

Brander Matthews in the Reader Magazine.

There is a double difficulty in comparing the characteristics of two nationalities, due to the fact that they are both of them in constant process of modification—a process more evident and more rapid here in the United States, but still obvious enough in Great Britain. Although the English speaking race is mainly of Teutonic origin it has been subjected to all sorts of influences in the long centuries before the American revolution and in the century and a third since that fortunate event, until it is now no longer easy for the two peoples that compose it always to understand one another as it is so needful that they should, for the best interests of both. Using the same language, inheriting the same law, ruled by the same political traditions, they are alike and unlike, and perhaps the final word in regard to their relation to each other was written many years ago by the historian of the "Winning of the West," who is now the president of the United States and who declared that "Americans belong to the English race only in the sense in which Englishmen belong to the German."

PECULIAR FINES.

Mrs. Elizabeth Crowe, of South Dakota, has been divorced and her husband has been granted the custody of her little girl. FACTORIES FOR CITY

REAL ESTATE EXCHANGE TO LOOK INTO PROPOSITION.

Will Give Dinner Shortly, When the City's Welfare Will Be Discussed. Remedy for Destruction.

The most important question before the Real Estate exchange at its meeting last night, in the offices of Wills & Co., was that of introducing factories into this locality. On this subject the exchange took a conservative stand, holding that there are many industries that will be a benefit to the city and to which there could be no possible objections.

A new standing committee will be appointed by the exchange to investigate and report for approval any factory whose backers wish to build here. The merits and demerits of such a proposition will be considered and action taken accordingly.

It was also proposed to give a dinner to which will be invited guests interested in the general welfare and development of the city. Speeches by representative men will be made along this line. The dinner will take place at an early date.

Another subject of importance to property owners was the remedying of the wanton destruction of vacant property and the signs thereon. To accomplish this end, a committee was appointed, with George M. Irwin as chairman. He was given instructions to draw up an ordinance making it a special offense to indulge in such destruction. It was also agreed to offer in the name of the Real Estate exchange, a reward for the conviction of such malefactors.

It is probable that a special meeting will be called next week to further consider the new industry idea and to discuss the feasibility of a charter convention.

for the knife with which the deed had been committed, without success. After examining the body, Coroner Law ordered its removal to the morgue, where the inquest will be held.

The room in which the dead man lay showed signs of a fierce scuffle and presented a sickening sight. Mrs. Smith also was literally covered with the blood of the dead man.

At the police station Smith was not told at first that Cartmell was dead. He said he stabbed Cartmell in self-defense, and declared that prior to yesterday's tragedy, he had often seen his wife and Cartmell in compromising positions. He said:

"Cartmell is much larger than myself and my physical superior. I would have had no chance with him in a fight, and I desired no trouble. Although I was much annoyed by the actions of the two, I restrained myself. I think more of my wife than anything in the world, and hope they will not lock her up tonight.

Ordered Cartmell Out.

"This afternoon I returned home about 2 o'clock, and found my wife and Cartmell in the parlor. A bottle of gin was on the table, and I ordered Cartmell out of the house, demanding that he stay away and not bring liquor to my wife. He replied that he would come as often as he liked, and that it was not my house.

"I threatened to summon an officer and left the house, much enraged. I came home again about 4 o'clock, but did not bring a policeman, having thought better of it. This time Mrs. Smith was lying in the bedroom just off the parlor.

"Hot words were exchanged between Cartmell and myself and he struck me with his fist. He is much stronger than I, and in self-defense, I drew my black handled penknife, and stabbed him with it. I then went out on the front porch, and holding the screen tight, so that Cartmell could not follow so easily, begged him to allow me to get my coat and vest. When I went in again for my coat, Cartmell struck me with a chair, and I stabbed him again, I think in the shoulder, with my knife. I at once went to the house of a neighbor, and told him to summon an officer, relating what had occurred."

Mrs. Nettie Smith, wife of the man who did the stabbing, was hysterical at times, although for the most part she was calm and self-possessed. She said that she did not witness the fight, coming into the front room after it was over. Mrs. Smith said in part:

"Cartmell and my husband had often had words together, but I do not care to go into details. Yesterday Charlie (Smith) went to the drug store for some gin for a cold, but was unable to procure less than a quart, so yesterday evening Cartmell brought some for me. Cartmell was a friend of both Mr. Smith and myself. He boarded with us for two months last winter, and was like one of the family.

Brought Her Gin.

"This morning he came to the house about 11 o'clock, Charlie being away. He gave me a drink of the gin, and was bringing me some breakfast when Charlie came back. I was in bed, my cold having become worse. Charlie abused me and called me hard names. Cartmell said that I should not stand that sort of treatment, and followed my husband out into the front room. The affair took place either on the porch or in the parlor. I did not see the fight, but after it was over I found Cartmell lying on the kitchen floor, and tried to stanch the flow of blood. I have no idea how long I was there on the floor with him. I only wish that I could have intervened and put my hand over the place where Cartmell was stabbed, maybe I could have saved him."

W. C. Cartmell, the dead man, was about 46 years of age. He was a brother of Captain N. M. Cartmell, of the Tenth United States cavalry, stationed at Fort Robinson, Neb. Captain Cartmell played on the Fort Robinson polo team in this city last year, and is well known in social circles. He was scheduled to play with the army team during the Centennial polo tournament, being detained at the last moment by the illness of his wife. Mrs. John Graham, of Newville, Pa., according to Mrs. Smith, is a sister of Cartmell, her husband being a wealthy street car owner. Another married sister, named Fannie, and one called Birdie, complete the known list of Cartmell's relatives.

Cartmell, who has been in Colorado for several years, formerly lived in Salt Lake City, where his wife died eleven years ago. He was recently employed as a switchman on the Colorado Midland.

Smith Is Well Known.

Charles W. Smith is a well known railroad man of this state, having lived here since childhood. He is about 37 years of age. He formerly lived near Littleton, south of Denver, and for many years was an engineer on the Colorado & Southern railway. He lived in Como for about seven years, meeting his present wife in that city. The couple were married in Denver in 1898, afterward living successively in Como, Cripple Creek and this city. They came to Colorado Springs last January.

Smith has a brother, Jesse, in the state of Washington, while another, Arthur, is engaged in mining at Goldfield, Nev. A third brother, Marion, is a switchman on a Cripple Creek road, with headquarters in that city. An uncle, Gale McKinney, divides his time between Cripple Creek and Goldfield. His parents are both dead.

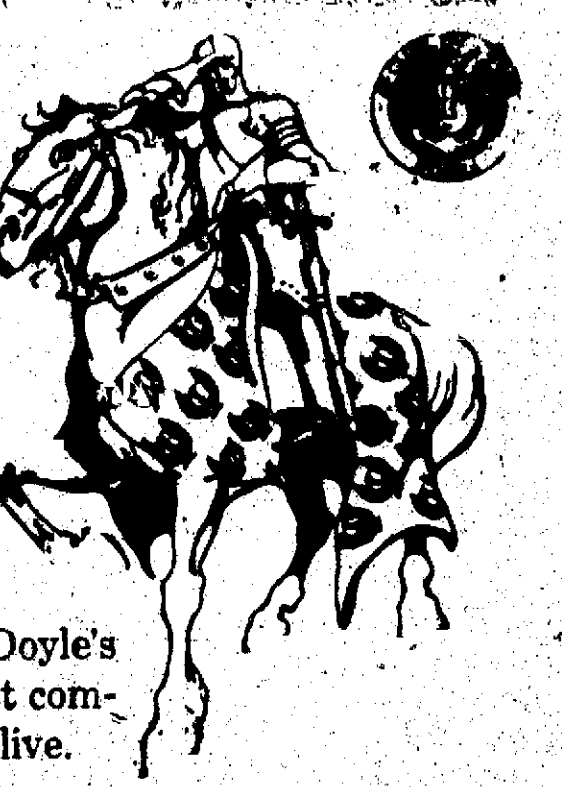

Four distinct cuts were found on Cartmell's body at the morgue. All were on the right side, one on the shoulder blade near the back, one on top of the shoulder, another in the right side, and a deeper cut right under the collar bone. It is this cut which is thought to have killed Cartmell. It is believed that the jugular vein was severed. A post-mortem examination will be held tomorrow. The cut on the back was not necessarily inflicted from the back, according to Coroner D. F. Law, and could have been dealt from the side.

KAUFMAN'S 11TH ANNIVERSARY

WILL BE APPROPRIATELY CELEBRATED TODAY.

DECORATIONS AND FINE MUSIC

Many Surprises for Colorado Springs Shoppers. Attractions from Basement to Roof.

Kaufman's department store will celebrate its eleventh anniversary today, the store remaining open from 9 a. m. to 5:45 p. m. Tastefully decorated with flowers and red bells, and ribbons of red and white, the interior of the building presents a very attractive appearance. The windows, which have always been a source of pride to the establishment, and attraction to shoppers, have been especially arranged for the occasion by L. E. Dix, advertising manager and decorator for Kaufman's. Extra clerks have been added to the already efficient force employed in the store and everything is in readiness to care for the large crowd which is sure to throng the aisles and show places of the building.

To make today the greatest day in the history of the store a new sale feature—one which has never before been tried in Colorado Springs—will be introduced. No souvenirs will be given away, but instead, a 10 per cent discount will be allowed on all purchases. This discount applies to every department in the store.

Eleven years ago Kaufman's store was opened in Colorado Springs. It occupied about 6,000 square feet of floor surface on one floor. Since that time the firm has built up such a large and extensive business, catering to all classes of people, that it now occupies 40,000 square of floor space on three floors and a basement. "Everything for Everybody" has been adopted as the motto of the store, and a glance at the stocks of goods kept for sale verifies the motto. Recently a department containing rugs, carpets and tapestries was added.

Alfred S. Kraker is superintendent of the store. The proprietors are B. S. Kaufman and O. Livermore. Music will be furnished on the first and second floors and in the basement during the entire day by Fink's orchestra.

In connection with the modern stock of goods, an up-to-date delivery service is maintained. Kaufman's department store is the only establishment of its kind in Colorado Springs which has an automobile delivery. The public is invited to visit Kaufman's today and help celebrate the eleventh anniversary.

Cashier of Electric Co. Will Take New Position With Title & Trust Co., Oct. 15.

Following the resignation of F. M. McMahon as secretary of the Colorado Title and Trust company, comes the announcement by President J. A. Connell of that company that S. I. Moore, of Colorado Springs, will be the company's new auditor. The position of secretary made vacant by Mr. McMahon will not be filled for the present.

Mr. Moore, who has been cashier and chief accountant for the Colorado Springs Electric company for the last four years, will take up his duties as auditor of the Title and Trust company on October 15. Mr. Moore was originally from New York.

"RACE SUICIDE" IN PARIS

The birth rate in Paris is still decreasing. There were fewer births this year than last in every district but two, including one where the population is growing at the rate of 3,000 annually. One district, notwithstanding the increase of population, shows a decrease of 400 births when compared with those of two years ago. There is the same decrease in the birth rate throughout the whole of France, and the statistics for the last few years would indicate that the "race suicide" will still go on.

WILLIAM AND MR. ARMOUR.

The British correspondent of L'Eclair of Paris credits Emperor William with having said, after a talk with Mr. Armour, of Chicago: "That man in an hour and a half has caused more ideas to spring up in me than my Prussian nobility can evoke in an entire year." Did they chat about "The Jungle?"

A LINDSEY STATEMENT

Judge Lindsey is an independent candidate for governor. If under the iniquitous ballot law we can prevent it, no other candidates will be allowed to use the Lindsey name on the state ticket. Owing to complications in the ballot law and the dangers of aiding the powers that are against reform, and the inability to get independent candidates in many counties, without helping these powers of evil, some of the candidates already nominated upon pledging themselves to stand for the reforms advocated by Judge Lindsey, have been allowed to run under that name with independent Republicans and Democrats on a local ticket, in El Paso and Denver county districts, but the state organization urges all voters to be independent in this campaign, and vote only for those whom they think are the best men regardless of misleading statements in the partisan press.

Some certificates of nomination are being filed under Judge Lindsey's name without his knowledge or consent, and for fraudulent purposes. The iniquity of the present ballot law is shown by this confusion, and voters who wish to protest against it, should see that they place a cross mark after the name of Lindsey, thereby protesting against bosses and machine rule, and stand by a fearless and faithful servant of the people. Campaign funds are needed and can be sent to E. J. Short, Chairman Finance committee, Albany Hotel.

PEGGY PRODUCING GOOD ORE

One to Two Cars a Week Which Run ... Three to Five Ounces in Gold to the Ton.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Oct. 9.—The Peggy Leasing company, operating on the Peggy fraction on the south slope of Gold hill, practically within the confines of the town of Anaconda, is shipping out from one to two cars of ore a week, which are giving returns of from three to five ounces in gold to the ton.

All of the ore is being mined from a flat, vertical and cross vein, which junction was found a short distance north and east of the shaft at a depth of 303 feet. This company will probably begin active development work shortly in the lower levels of the property. The shaft on the Peggy has been sunk to a depth of 500 feet.

This is the little fraction which was brought prominently into notice three or four years ago by H. M. Gilbert. It produced over a quarter of a million dollars for Gilbert and his associates. He quit it and the property lay idle for several months, when Harold Thompson secured a lease and organized the Peggy Leasing company. Since then the mine has been shipping out several thousand dollars in ore every month.

WILD HORSE MILL FIRED UP

Cyanide Solution Being Run Into Tanks Preparatory to Precipitation.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Oct. 9.—Cavanagh and company, who recently took a lease on the Wild Horse mill of the United Gold Mines company, on Bull hill, now owned and controlled by the Golden Cycle company, has fired up and is running the cyanide solution into the tanks preparatory to precipitation. This mill, one of the first successful cyanide mills in the camp, has been shut down for a year, but will be run practically to capacity, which is 100 tons daily, from now on. Messrs. Cavanagh and company have ample ore in the mine to keep the mill running at full blast for a couple of years. Mr. Cavanagh is an expert cyanide operator, having worked for a score of years in California. The rock will be crushed to a finer mesh than was done by former operators, which will allow of a much better extraction and more profit.

ENGLISH VERSUS AMERICAN RAILWAYS.

Ray Morris in the Atlantic.

The upshot of a comparison between English and American railways is that each country has provided itself with the system that, broadly considered, answers its own needs the best, and that, when all circumstances are taken into account, neither has much to learn from the other. Certain great defects stand out in each: English railway financing and American railway carelessness are both deserving of censure. Yet these defects are quite explainable in their outgrowth from the physical conditions at hand, and they are not amenable to any off-hand remedy. Likewise, certain points of especial attractiveness, such as the English baggage system and the punctuality of trains and the American luxury of through travel, have arisen from a complicated set of local circumstances, and could not be transplanted unless all the circumstances were transplanted as well. Most forcible of all is the impression gained by such a study that the essential basis, the very creed and doctrine of one country, as regards the economics of its railway working, may not be so much as discussed in another, where the same ultimate problem is gotten at in a wholly different way.

WHEAT HAS FIRM TONE

IMPROVED CASH AND EXPORT DEMAND IS CAUSE.

Total Volume of Business Small. Market Closes Firm With Prices at Highest Point.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—A slight advance in the price of wheat in Liverpool and the improved cash and export demand caused a firm tone today in the Chicago wheat market. At the close, wheat for December was up ⅛c.

Corn was ⅛c higher. Oats were up a shade and provisions were 10@15c to 17½c higher.

Wheat was firm all day. At the opening there was some covering by "shorts" who were influenced by an advance in curb prices at Minneapolis and by higher prices at Liverpool. Commission houses were moderate buyers. Throughout the day offerings came largely from bears who sold for short account, there being little long wheat for sale. Reports from the Pacific coast indicated a more active demand for export and this strengthened the local market. Another bullish factor was the improved demand for cash wheat at the principal grain centers, accompanied by an advance at Kansas City of one cent a bushel.

The total volume of business was not large. The market closed firm with prices at the highest point of the day. December opened ⅛c higher at 74⅝@¾c.

Corn trading was only moderately active and prices ruled steady. Early in the day sentiment was inclined to be bearish because of the selling of the May delivery by a leading commission house. Chicago receipts today were somewhat under the estimated amounts and tomorrow's arrivals are placed at only 157 cars. This had a steadying effect on the market and the firmness of wheat was also an influence. The market closed steady.

Oats showed considerable firmness, although prices made only a light advance, notwithstanding favorable weather in the northwest for the movement of the crop. Receipts today were only 32 cars against 90 for the same day last year. This fact had considerable effect on the market.

Provisions—The feature was buying of October lard and ribs by "shorts." The market was firm for the greater part of the day. At the close, January pork was up 15@17½c at $13.72½@$13.75. Lard was up 10@12½c at $8.07½@8.10. Ribs were 7½c higher.

EXCEEDS $120,000 A MONTH

Ophir Ore Yielding Over a Million and a Half Dollars a Year.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Oct. 9.—The celebrated Ophir mine, on Raven hill, is steadily producing 900 tons of ore every month, and the average grade continues to run $100 in gold to the ton. About once each month, sometimes twice a month, a car of high-grade is shipped which gives returns ranging from 15 to 18 ounces in gold to the ton. This property is owned and controlled exclusively by Mrs. J. J. Cone of Canon City.

The ore is being mined from the 600, 700 and 800-foot levels, where the ore shoot is from four to seven feet wide. It was only recently that the crosscut on the 800-foot level was extended about 100 feet to the ore shoot. It will not be surprising if the tonnage from this mine, beginning November 1, is increased to 1,200 tons per month. If this tonnage can be maintained, the gross value every 30 days will exceed $120,000 a month or about a million and a half dollars a year gross.

WILL LEASE THE PHARMACIST

Meeting Will Be Held Today to Dispose of the Famous Bull Hill Property.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Oct. 9.—Considerable interest is being manifested over the adjourned meeting of the directors of the Pharmacist company, which will meet at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the office of President Walter E. Rock, 227 East Bennett avenue, for the purpose of giving a lease on the entire holdings of the famous Bull hill property. There are seven applicants, all of whom are said to have ample financial backing to carry out any contracts entered into. Three of the parties after the Pharmacist are residents of Colorado Springs. The shaft on the Pharmacist has been sunk to a depth of 677 feet and it is the general belief that about 250 feet more sinking will put the shaft on a level with the famous Shurtloff-Burns ... of the ... ore shoot.

TEST OLD UNION ORE

MAY INSTALL MAGNETIC SEPARATION MACHINES.

Good Cleanup Expected From Initial Run of Blue Flag.—Several Deals Pending.

BRECKENRIDGE, Colo., Oct. 8.—Manager Anderson of the Old Union is in Denver having several test runs made by the various magnetic separating machines on the zinc iron concentrate product of the old Union mill. When it has been decided which is the best machine for this work the company will at once have two or more shipped to Breckenridge and installed in its large mill. J. B. Sherwood of Ripon, Wis., who is the treasurer of the organization, has been spending some days on the mine. Dr. A. H. Alt-hoff of Oshkosh, Wis., another director of the company, has also been inspecting the mine and mill.

The Blue Flag company's mill on Bald mountain is running and good returns are expected from the first cleanup.

J. Parke Channing, E. M., a mining engineer of New York city, has been in Breckenridge for some days investigating the results of the drilling tests of the North American placer ground on the Swan river, which have been going on for the past five months under the supervision of Mr. Tuttle of California.

This is being done with a view of the property being bought by New York and London capitalists and is a deal instituted by Ben Stanley Revett, the noted placer mining engineer. It is hoped that the deal will be consummated, as the property has proved to be of great value.

The Oro Grande placer property at Dillon, ten miles west of Breckenridge, is under contemplation of purchase by the Summit Banner Placer company.

W. W. Wonser, secretary of the Square Deal company, has been making an official visit to the property in order to report on the latest developments up to date at the first annual general meeting of stockholders to be held this month.

The Four Most property on Chief mountain at Frisco, near the Square Deal company's ground, is likely to change hands soon. A syndicate of Denver men is considering its purchase. It has been a good producer in the past.

Francis L. Judd and associates of Topeka, Kan., have purchased some valuable property adjoining the Square Deal mine. The claims show good outcrops of copper ore.

A deal on the Masontown company's mine and mill is in progress and there is no doubt that it will be consummated. This will be a good thing for Frisco, as the property is a good one; but disagreement between the owners has caused it to be closed down for over two years.

MARKET IS LETHARGIC

STOCKS FAIL TO RESPOND TO LEADERSHIP.

No Acute Pressure at Any Time. Railroad List Temporarily Neglected.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Stocks failed to respond to the leadership of a few issues which showed strength today, and the condition of the market became lethargic during the latter part of the day. The ground for the neglect into which the market fell was not clear, but the way in which stock was supplied on any advance and the absence of large transactions in stock fostered the impression that the controlling powers in the market desired a period of speculative quiet.

Traders professed to see no signs of the selling on that ... that intimidated them from any attempts to contest, the indifference thus signalized. There was no acute pressure at any time and the movements at one or two points in the list where advances occurred, were believed to be for sustaining effect. The railroad list was conspicuously neglected and Pennsylvania was the only stock of first rate importance to show any large activity or mobility.

There were some large buying operations in that stock accompanied by rumors of an intention to raise the dividend rate to seven per cent at the next dividend period. There was a rise of a point also in the subsidy, Chesapeake & Ohio, but when it became known that the directors who were expected to act on an increased dividend today had failed to secure a quorum, the movement ran out.

A rumored dividend increase stimulated Amalgamated Copper also in the early dealings. The moderate strength in Union Pacific was due to the expectation of the early publication of the annual report in pamphlet form, which is expected to contain matter to commend the stock to buyers, but it was announced that several weeks would probably intervene before the report would go to the stockholders.

American Smelting also extended its recent large advance. Money in the local market continued to work easier and there was a disposition to shade the six per cent rate on time loans for the first time in many weeks.

Foreign markets had more influence on money considerations than the domestic situation. There was some slight relaxation in the London market for money. The conviction is general that the Imperial Bank of Germany will raise its discount rate tomorrow.

The foreign exchange market here was very strong and rose at one time to more than half a cent in the pound sterling. Demand for remittance to cover maturing finance bills was reported to be rather urgent and the supply of commercial bills was reported to be rather urgent and the supply of commercial bills was light.

The heavy tone of the latter market persisted to the closing except in Pennsylvania.

Bonds were firm. Total sales, par value, $3,362,000.

U. S. bonds were unchanged on call.

LIBELED BY TELEPHONE.

In Vienna the vexed question as to the conversations by telephone being libelous, and therefore actionable, has just been set at rest by the supreme court of appeal, after going through two courts below. The woman cashier of a bathing establishment had been called up on the telephone and so soundly rated by a client that she took action and was awarded 50 crowns as damages. The court above upheld the judgment, and so has the court of cassation, which, however, substituted forty-eight hours' prison for the money damages.

THOSE WHO READ THE GAZETTE "ADS."

A "liberal education" is one that has not been "finished"—one that never will be finished.
Nowadays no one is liberally educated who does not keep "in touch" with all current advertising. No one, in these times, may converse intelligently in a company of people who live "on earth" (and not in the clouds) unless he is pretty familiar with the trend and tendencies of the commercial advertising of his community. Thus to read Gazette ads is to keep "in touch" with things

ART needlework, materials and stamping. Miss Brooke, the Antlers.

THE ladies of the First M. E. church will hold a rummage sale at 5½ East Huerfano Friday and Saturday, October 12 and 13.

RALLY OF COLORED VOTERS—The colored voters of the city will hold a rally next Friday evening, when addresses will be delivered by Dr. J. H. P. W. [illegible] and Rev. J. E. Ford, pastor of the Baptist church, of Denver. The meeting will probably be held in the county court house.

TO WED TODAY—Announcement has been received in this city of the marriage, in Appleton, Wis., today, of Miss Jessie Emily Pierce and Charles W. Turner, both of this city. Miss Pierce is the divorced wife of Dr. Harlan A. Trask, also formerly of this city, while Mr. Turner is a member of the local art firm of Ashford & Roberts.

FOUR MORE—Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to four couples, as follows: Frank Leon Turner and Helen Doretha Dodson, both of Roswell, Colo.; Chester Camp, Eastonville, and Edna Taylor, Colorado Springs; William Smith, Cripple Creek, and Bessie Felce, San Francisco, and Hampton Watson Randolph, Tulsa, O. T., and Margaret Stewart, Colorado Springs.

A MOST WORTHY ARTICLE.

When an article has been on the market for years and gains friends every year, it is safe to call this medicine a worthy one. Such is Ballard's Horehound Syrup. It positively cures coughs and all Pulmonary diseases. One of the best known merchants in Mobile, Ala., says: "For five years my family has not been trouble with the winter coughs. We owe this to Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I know it has saved my children from many sick spells." Sold by Hefley-Arcularius Drug Co.

FORCE OF HABIT.

From the Ponca City (Okla.) Courier. "The force of habit is a wonderful thing," remarked an Oklahoman who attended the McGuire jubilation at Guthrie. "The fellows in Indian territory, where the discovery of intoxicants in one's possession means the loss of freedom, have concealed their tippling so long that when they come to Oklahoma, where drinks are served publicly over a bar, their old habit clings to them. They conceal their booze in the bureau drawer in their room at the hotel."

WHAT THE PRESS AGENTS SAY

PLEASURE BY THE PECK

The inimitable humor flowing from ex-Governor George W. Peck's pen and the only dramatization thereof have made the name and fame of "Peck's Bad Boy" a household word from fireside to theater wherever the English language is spoken. Hence, the coming to the Opera house next Saturday afternoon and evening of the wonderfully popular and successful farce comedy embodying and vitalizing in character creations by a remarkably strong cast and the best of the famous humorist's inimitably funny hits, skits and sketches from real life, made from a standpoint to amuse all and offend none, justifies anticipations of laughter long and loud enough to shake the theater walls, and of more tickles than the biggest circus tent could hold. Popular prices will be charged for this engagement, 25c, 50c, 75c and $1.00.

"PEGGY FROM PARIS" COMING

When "Peggy From Paris" comes to the Opera house next Tuesday, lovers of musical comedy of exceptionally high class will have an opportunity of gratifying their taste. Of the unusually keen quality of George Ade's wit and engaging humor there is no need to speak. Long ago he took his place in the front rank of American humorists. But this year's company and production are better than since the first performance five years ago at the Studebaker theater, Chicago. The new Peggy, Miss Eulale Jensen, is a very pretty young woman who for the past two years has been cultivating her voice under the best teachers in Paris. Arthur Deagon, the original Reginald Hickey, the tough boy, is of course, with the company, and the chorus is composed of an entirely new set of girls, who have been selected and trained with a special attention to their fitness for the important part they play in the piece. The scenery and properties and all the [illegible] electrical effects are new and a complete fresh dress of costumes has been provided.

SOUSA'S "THE FREE LANCE"

Klaw & Erlanger will present at the Opera house tomorrow evening the Sousa Opera company in the "March King's" latest and greatest success entitled "The Free Lance," the book of which is by Harry B. Smith, the author of "Robin Hood." Joseph Cawthorn is the stellar feature of the cast, which with the ensemble numbers more than one hundred persons, including such well-known singers and comedians as Nella Bergen, Albert Hart, George Tallman, Jeannette Lowrie, George Schiller and many others of like caliber in the principal characters. "The Free Lance" is a real comic opera, written in the best vein of our great American "March King," John Philip Sousa, and brimming over with that rhythmic, swinging, stirring, martial music which has made his name so popular throughout the world. The cast and production complete is the same in every detail as that which characterized the original presentment at the New Amsterdam theater, New York, and is said to be regal in its magnificence and fully up to that standard of beauty which its sponsors, Klaw & Erlanger, always give to a big production.
